Celebrity Trivia Brutus Rucker, 2021-04-03 Celebs are Awesome! The ten categories of people who have achieved more fame and fortune than any other are the following: -- Leaders and politicians-- Scientists-- Writers and people of literature-- Actors and Directors-- Social activists-- Sportspeople-- TV and Radio Stars-- Musicians, Singers, and Composers-- Motivational Speakers-- Billionaires and Businesspeople We aspire to be them; we follow their words; we are influenced by them. This book And today, in this book, you will test your knowledge of the names of some of the most famous people of all time, through many different eras in history, from many of the categories given above, and some more as well! What qualities will you need to achieve success when you play through the puzzles that are included in the pages of this book? Quite a few: -- Knowledge helps. Of course, you can (and should) use Google or the answers provided within this book to help you when you encounter a strange celebrity name, but knowing the names of a large number of achievers and famous people will help your brain achieve pattern recognition sooner, and reduce the time to a correct guess.-- Experience with solving puzzles is, of course, a definite plus.-- Free time. If you want to complete all the puzzles in this book, you might take 10-50 hours. However, the structure of the book means that you can spend ten minutes on each section at a time; this is flexible and helpful. The benefits of reading this book are many: -- Improves your general knowledge. No matter how informed you are, you will see that 20% of every celebrity set is strange to you, and this helps you discover new accomplished people.-- Inspires and motivates you. The people you will read about are the top 1% of the top 1% of special human beings. Even reading about them can take your self motivation and drive to the next level.-- Good exercise for your brain. Mental health is positively impacted by mental workouts, and you will see this happen as you go through this book. You will have a great time with this book.

Quiz Kids Martin A. Gardner, 2013-08-24 Quiz Kids was a network radio program that aired from 1940 to 1953 featuring smart children answering difficult questions submitted by listeners. Part of radio history during its "golden age," Quiz Kids thrived during a period of dramatic change in America. Audiences marveled at the speed with which the Kids answered the most difficult questions, vaulting the show beyond the producers' wildest expectations. Eleanor Roosevelt invited the Kids to the White House to meet with them. Their appearance at the Senate is discussed in the Congressional Record. During World War II, they toured America and raised $120 million in war bonds. They were guests on Jack Benny's radio show for three consecutive weeks. Walt Disney, Bob Hope, Fred Allen, the Lone Ranger, Gene Autry and other famous people were on their program. This thorough history describes the creation of the program, its national popularity and the children who made it such good listening.

fun, light-hearted, and thought-provoking collection features both brand new and popular quizzes directly from BuzzFeed's viral sensation Rachel McMahon. Featuring additional irreverent commentary and breakdowns of quiz outcomes not previously published on such topics as who is your celebrity boyfriend based on what frozen yogurt you like to finding out whether you are more Phineas or Ferb based on your favorite sandwich toppings, What Kind of Quiz Book Are You? is an entertaining and laugh-out-loud collection like no other, destined to become as addictive as coloring books.

Famous People Puzzles Carolyn Powell, 2005 What would the items found in the trashcans and pockets of people tell you about their lives and personalities? Famous People Puzzles contains scraps of papers left by famous people, offering students a chance to use reasoning and research to flesh out the details of these people's lives. This information lets them identify the person and write a short biography. These activities are a welcome departure from the average research assignment, incorporating reading, writing, and research of cross-cultural and historical studies. Your students will use personal archaeology to create profiles on 16 famous people. Each puzzle combines a number of academic and critical thinking skills into one motivating activity. The subjects represent different areas of the world, ethnic origins, sexes, time periods, and occupations. Some are world leaders that students will have encountered many times during their studies, and some are less famous, but still have made a difference. Students will delight in the mystery and challenge this book brings.
