The LUNAR Connection Phillip Muller, 2017-12-21 The ultimate guide to timing your fishing trip for success! This book has been compiled from over 40 years of meticulous record keeping of thousands of fishing trips. Records which have been dissected and analysed and the repetitive feeding patterns noted and compared to each day of the Lunar cycle. It is astounding to see how, when tested, these records are extremely accurate and repeat constantly. Each year millions of Anglers throughout the world spend billions of dollars on fishing equipment, boats, bait, travel and holidays in an endeavour to fulfil their inner desire to catch fish. Many anglers spend no time selecting when they should be on the water. This results in a lot of time being wasted fishing when the fish are not feeding, therefore limiting success, and being extremely frustrating. The Lunar Connection is a comprehensive and detailed look at the phases of the moon, together with the sun and other influences, and the effect they have over the everyday feeding patterns of fish species. It shows in detail when fish are likely to be feeding and how ferociously. Dramatic changes in barometric pressure, cloud formations, the ionization of the atmosphere and the onset of storms can also be used to determine fluctuations in feeding activity. Recreation time these days is often limited. This book will allow maximization of results and less precious time wasted when the fish are not biting, enabling better results, and more enjoyment of the overall experience. Whilst there have been articles written about fishing and the Moon, there has never been anything written to this extent regarding the feeding patterns of fish. Phillip has personally won hundreds of fishing competitions using far less time, to the amazement of others who do not have this knowledge. This information is relevant around the globe, and is a game changer for anglers worldwide.

The Seasons of a Fisherman Roderick L. Haig-Brown, 2000 Roderick L. Haig-Brown is one of the world's most beloved fly-fishing writers. His classic books bring together exquisite prose, the full romance and beauty of fishing, and much solid angling advice. Here, for the first time in one volume, are his popular seasons books: Fisherman's Spring, Fisherman's Summer, Fisherman's Fall, and Fisherman's Winter. They chronicle a fisherman's year, from the brightening days of spring through a loving portrait of the author's home rivers in British Columbia during the summer, on into the excitement of fall fishing, to a winter away from his Campbell River, to fish the great rivers of Argentina and Chile. As Verlyn Klinkenborg has said, It think it forms some sort of watershed experience in every angler's reading when he comes upon Roderick Haig-Brown for the first time. And so it does. The Seasons of a Fisherman is an excellent place to start.

Past Master's Treasure - Atlantic Salmon Flies of Major Traherne Satoshi Yamamoto, 2021-04-13 Among all the classic Atlantic salmon flies, a series of flies designed by Major John Popkin Traherne (1826-1901) stands out. However, it's not quite clear how many patterns Major designed. This is author's quest to find Traherne patterns from classic to modern literature and his passion to dress and present them all together. All flies are masterfully dressed and inspected by a few noted fly dressers. Superb photography on luxurious paper. That being said, this is not just an eye-pleasing photo book. This is based on the intense research with literature, with fly dressing recipes and bibliography included.
