The Fly Guy Laura Bradford, 2006 An environmentally conscious journalist meets a not-so-green flight instructor and somehow finds herself on cloud nine in this fresh and funny debut. Original.

Long Flight Home Lainie Anderson, 2019-05-15 The First World War is over and air mechanic Wally Shiers has promised to return home to his fiancée, Helena Alford. But Wally never reckoned on charismatic fighter pilot Ross Smith, and an invitation to compete in the world's most audacious air race. A £10,000 prize has been offered for the first airmen to fly from England to Australia. Smith is banking on an open-cockpit Vickers Vimy, a biplane with a fuselage that looks ominously like a coffin. And who can resist a hero? Wally writes to Helena to say he won't be home for another year - and the love of his life is left holding her hand-stitched wedding dress ... Using war diaries, letters and Churchill Fellowship research from along the race route, Long Flight Home recreates one of the most important - and largely forgotten - chapters in world aviation history. Lainie Anderson's ambitious and moving novel is told through her narrator, Wally Shiers. The tale spans the decades and crosses the globe, and at his journey's end we're left peering down from an open cockpit on two beacons of truth. There is no heroism without honour. There is no legacy without love.

Taking Flight Kristen Alexander, 2016-03-01 From her first taste of the air when she joined Bert Hinkler in the cockpit for a joy ride in 1928, Lores Bonney was hooked. With her aviation licence and the support of her husband, she took to Australian and international skies and braved the challenge of long-distance flying. Taking Flight draws from the National Library of Australia's rich archives and manuscript collection to present the tale of Lores Bonney, the first woman to circumnavigate the Australian continent by air, the first woman acknowledged to fly from Australia to England, and the first solo pilot to fly from Australia to Cape Town, South Africa. Aviation writer Kristen Alexander intimately illuminates the woman behind the audacious pilot, exploring her highs and lows and struggle to gain and maintain her place as one of Australia's great aviation pioneers.

Flight of the Tiger Moth Mary Woodbury, 2007 When death threatens a pilot at the nearby air training base, seventeen-year-old Jack must use a secretly-acquired skill to save a life and affirm his own identity to his over protective mother. Jack Waters sees his small prairie town turned upside down in World War II, when an air base to train English flyers is set up nearby. It's 1943, no one knows who will win the war, and Canadians are taking a major role in the fighting. This includes training British Royal Air Force pilots in many centres across Canada. Even though Jack can't enlist, he secretly learns how to fly. Good thing, because when a friend's plane comes down on the prairie, Jack has no choice but to make his first solo flight--to try and save a life. The Flight of the Tiger Moth is the thrilling story of one boy's journey to become a man and find his path in the world. It also gives young readers a glimpse of Canadian lives during World War II, and of one more Canadian contribution to winning the war. Mary Woodbury is the best-selling author of the young adult title The Ghost in the Machine, the Polly McDoodle Mystery Series, and Jess and the Runaway Grandpa, a finalist in the Silver Birch Young Readers Choice Award, and a Canadian Children's Book Centre Outstanding Title of the Year.

The Flying King Amanda Graham, 2003 The king wants to fly high. Then he wants to fly higher and higher. How does he fly? Will he land safely?

Freedom Flight Ricky De Agrela, 2013-11-14 Freedom Flight is the story of two ordinary men on an extraordinary adventure. In celebration of the centenary of powered flight and a decade of South African independence, SA pilots Alan Honeyborne and Ricky De Agrela took off, completely unsupported, from Cape Town on 16 December 2003. Their aim – to touch down on each continent of the world on the longest expedition ever flown in microlights. The expedition achieved several firsts for private aviation including flying through Yemen and Nepal and completing an unsupported microlight flight from South Africa to Australia. However, tragedy struck, first in China where Alan went down and later in Belize, when Alan's replacement, Martin Walker, also sustained a fatal accident. Ricky overcame personal trauma and debilitating fear to fly alone from England through Europe, over the Mediterranean Sea, the Sahara Desert and the wildernesses of East and Southern Africa to make it back to Cape Town. His accomplishment embodies the expedition's vision of encouraging others to reach for the sky. The story of Ricky's remarkable achievement is told in website updates and e-mail correspondence with maps detailing the 64 000-kilometre route.

Flight to Landfall Gerald Marcus Glaskin,1963

Home Swapping Helen Kaulbach,2023-04-11 Home Swapping is the story of a Canadian couple's 14 years of adventure, travelling by staying in other people's homes all over the world. Helen Kaulbach describes vacations many think they can only dream of, and how she and her husband Doug planned and enjoyed these many trips of a lifetime, on a tight budget. Each chapter is a journey through one exchange trip: the extravagant homes and penthouse condos, the new foods, driving on the left side of the road, and even nearly seeing a shark attack from 25 floors above. Home Swapping is also a guide to how to get started. You'll see that, by choosing to live in a home rather than an impersonal hotel or resort, you are more likely to make friends and experience the local culture. And, this type of travel is accessible to homeowners of any age. These stories are the perfect antidote to years of quarantines and travel bans – you'll get excited about travelling again!

Fly Brittany J. Thurman,2022-01-11 Africa asks her friends to teach her to double-dutch so she can enter a double-dutch competition, but none of her friends know how.

Jake and the Tiger Flight George Weinstein,2008 Twelve-year-old Jake Skyler's obsession with the Tiger Flight pilots and their amazing aircraft turns into a dream of learning to fly. Can a daydreamer like Jake ever learn the focus and self-discipline needed to make his goal a reality?

Phil Fly's First Flight Gabriell Lucchese-Hood,John

Hood,2020-11-28 Phil, a fly, is often misunderstood as a pest. Phil is off on his next journey to find a temporary home. Amidst his travel, he stumbles upon a strange place he's never seen before. The accidental discovery he makes changes his life forever.

Swallows Fly North Al McKay,2017-06-16 He thought of himself as a tiny minnow in an extremely large ocean. But maybe, just maybe, that swish of the minnow's tail or the ripple of the swallow's flight feathers on the waters of the Port had wafted a little essence of the Peninsula to the rest of the world. Life-long friends, Jack, Harry and Peter, were born in 1933 and spent their early childhood on the Tasman Peninsula. They sought careers far from their homeland but, despite living far apart as adults and following their own guiding stars, they, like the swallows, returned time and again to their birthplace. Swallows Fly North is their story – a tale of boys growing from romantic children to the realities of manhood during the years from 1940 to 1963; a tale of migration, regeneration and the protection of cultural heritage.

Fly Away Home Patricia Hermes,Robert Rodat,Vince McKewin,1996 The story of how a 14-year-old girl and her dad show a family of orphaned geese the way home.

The Higher They Fly Christopher Hodder-Williams,1963
Flight of Youth Ron Graham,1997

Race the Atlantic Wind Oisín McGann,2019-06-10 In the spring of 1919, after the end of the First World War, teams of pilots and navigators begin to gather on the North American island of Newfoundland. They are attempting what many believe to be impossible – to fly non-stop across the Atlantic Ocean. Equipped with machines made mostly from wood, fabric and wire, they intend to fly the 1,800 miles to Ireland, in the face of the merciless North Atlantic weather. John Alcock and Arthur Whitten Brown are late to arrive. Competing against some of Europe's most famous pilots, these two British war veterans are considered rank outsiders. Maggie McRory is a sixteen-year-old girl who sees the gathering of all these aircraft and their crews as a chance to escape her narrow existence. Her war-scarred uncle, however, views them as a threat to the island and his way of life. This absurdly dangerous contest is going to change the world . . .

Born to Fly Beverley McWilliams, 2022-07 Born in 1889 on a farm in rural South Australia, Harry Butler was determined to fly. Follow Harry's remarkable journey from studying the flight of his chickens to becoming one of Australia's most significant pioneer aviators. An inspiring true story of a young Australian hero who proved that anything is possible if you believe in yourself and follow your dreams.
