The Relaci  n de Michoac  n (1539-1541) and the Politics of Representation in Colonial Mexico Ang  lica Jimena Afanador-Pujol,2015-07-01 The Relaci  n de Michoac  n (1539–1541) is one of the earliest surviving illustrated manuscripts from colonial Mexico. Commissioned by the Spanish viceroy Antonio de Mendoza, the Relaci  n was produced by a Franciscan friar together with indigenous noble informants and anonymous native artists who created its forty-four illustrations. To this day, the Relaci  n remains the primary source for studying the pre-Columbian practices and history of the people known as Tarascans or P'urh  pecha. However, much remains to be said about how the Relaci  n's colonial setting shaped its final form. By looking at the Relaci  n in its colonial context, this study reveals how it presented the indigenous collaborators a unique opportunity to shape European perceptions of them while settling conflicting agendas, outshining competing ethnic groups, and carving a place for themselves in the new colonial society.

Through archival research and careful visual analysis, Angélica Afanador-Pujol provides a new and fascinating account that situates the manuscript's images within the colonial conflicts that engulfed the indigenous collaborators. These conflicts ranged from disputes over political posts among indigenous factions to labor and land disputes against Spanish newcomers. Afanador-Pujol explores how these tensions are physically expressed in the manuscript's production and in its many contradictions between text and images, as well as in numerous emendations to the images. By studying representations of justice, landscape, conquest narratives, and genealogy within the Relación, Afanador-Pujol clearly demonstrates the visual construction of identity, its malleability, and its political possibilities.

JOSE AGUSTÍN BLANCO BARROS. Obras completas, Tomo III Jorge Villalón, Alexander Vega, 2011 Este tercer tomo de las obras completas del historiador José Agustín Blanco Barros está dedicado a la geografía y a la historia colonial del municipio de Tobará, ubicado en el antiguo territorio de Tierradentro, hoy departamento del Atlántico. El lector tendrá a su disposición valiosa información sobre la geografía de la zona, así como un detallado reporte de la situación en la que se encontraba la población indígena asentada en el municipio de Tobará durante la conquista y su posterior evolución durante los tres siglos de dominación española, época en la que se consolidan procesos de amalgama biológica y cultural en el Caribe Colombiano.

The 'Red Terror' and the Spanish Civil War Julius Ruiz, 2014-04-30 This book deals with one of most controversial issues of the Spanish Civil War (1936–9): the 'Red Terror'. Approximately 50,000 Spaniards were extrajudicially executed in Republican Spain following the failure of the military rebellion in July 1936. This mass killing of 'fascists' seriously undermined attempts by the legally constituted Republican government to present itself in foreign quarters as fighting a war for democracy. This study, based on a wealth of scholarship and archival sources, challenges the common view that executions were the work of criminal or anarchist 'uncontrollables'. Its focus is on Madrid, which witnessed at least 8,000 executions in 1936. It shows that the terror was organized and was carried out with the complicity of the police, and argues that terror was seen as integral to the antifascist war effort. Indeed, the elimination of the internal enemy - the 'Fifth Column' - was regarded as important as the war on the front line.

It analyzes updated versions of the country assessments carried out by the Inter-American Development Bank in 2004 in 16 countries and presents a comparative analysis of the ways in which the countries have evolved during the last decade. The methodology is based on the principles of the Ibero-American Charter for Public Service. In addition, it draws lessons from reform processes, identifying strategies for civil service modernization in the region. Finally, the book proposes a possible future agenda to continue the efforts to further professionalize the civil service in Latin America.
