The Ancestry and Descendants of Learner Blackman Harrison, 1815-1902 Harrison Black,2006

Learner Blackman Harrison s father Edmond was a son of William Harrison of Northampton Co., North Carolina, who had moved from Brunswick Co., Virginia. Brunswick had seperated from Prince George Co., Virginia, as will be seen in the chapter on Proven Harrisons. This book attempts to make a case for William of Virginia and North Carolina being desended from the first immigrant Benjamin Harrison of Wakefield in Surry Co., Virginia and thus from the Harrisons of Gobion s Manor in Northamptonshire, England. The Philosophical Computer Patrick Grim,Gary Mar,Paul St. Denis,1998 Philosophical modeling is as old as philosophy itself; examples range from Plato's Cave and the Divided Line to Rawls's original position. What is new are the astounding computational resources now available for philosophical modeling. Although the computer cannot offer a substitute for philosophical research, it can offer an important new environment for philosophical research. The authors present a series of exploratory examples of computer modeling, using a range of computational techniques to illuminate a variety of questions in philosophy and philosophical logic. Topics include self-reference and paradox in fuzzy logics, varieties of epistemic chaos, fractal images of formal systems, and cellular automata models in game theory. Examples in the last category include models for the evolution of generosity, possible causes and cures for discrimination, and the formal undecidability of patterns of social and biological interaction. The cross-platform CD-ROM provided with the book contains a variety of working examples, in color and often operating dynamically, embedded in a text that parallels that of the book. Source code of all major programs is included to facilitate further research.

The Barbour Collection of Connecticut Town Vital Records: Huntington 1789-1850, Kent 1739-1852, Killingly 1708-1850 Lorraine Cook White,2010-03 Volume 20 contains records of approximately 35,000 people from the towns of Huntington, Kent, and Killingly in Connecticut. As in all volumes published to date, entries are keyed to the volume and page number of the original records.

*Love Unfu*ked* Gary John Bishop, 2022-01-18 From the New York Times bestselling author of *Unfu*k Yourself* comes tough-love that explains what makes relationships work: you taking responsibility to fix yourself. “Love is patient, love is blind. . .” Until it's not. Then what? No matter how much advice we get or how much work we do on our “stuff,” nothing ever seems to make the difference. The truth of it is, you're woefully ill-equipped for one of the most life-defining things you will ever take on—being in a committed relationship. Whether you're currently in one, want to be in one, half in–half out, getting over one, married, single, separated, divorced, or just overwhelmed with the whole thing, let's cut through the morass of relationship schtick and put you back in charge. No flowery BS, no woo-woo strategies, systems, or techniques, just real talk, for real people who want a real relationship in their life that actually works.

Harris and Me Gary Paulsen, 1993 Sent to spend the summer with his uncle and aunt on their farm, an eleven-year-old city boy meets his daredevil cousin Harris and is given an introduction to a whole new world.
