Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-First Century Peter Hernon, Robert E. Dugan, Candy

Schwartz, 2013-05-09 This book discusses recent trends in outcomes assessment, examines how state governments are reshaping the national discussion with higher education, and explains how libraries must respond to these changes. Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-first Century focuses on recent developments in outcomes assessment, especially from the perspectives of the federal government and state governments, as well as foundations concerned about the state of higher education. The authors identify the significant changes that these stakeholders call for—information that academic librarians and anyone following outcomes assessment need to be aware of—and interpret the discussions to identify implications for libraries. Building upon the foundation of knowledge presented in the previous two Libraries Unlimited Outcomes Assessment in Higher Education titles, this book provides readers with up-to-date coverage of topics such as the emerging metrics used to define student and institutional success; the increased importance of accountability and the need to compare and assess the performance of programs and institutions rather than individual courses; and the shift in prioritizing student outcomes over student learning outcomes. The authors also spotlight the critical need for libraries to fit their role within the national discussion and suggest ways in which library managers and directors can play a role in redirecting the discussion to their benefit.

Social Media Regina Luttrell, 2016-08-19 Updated to reflect the latest innovations, this second edition of Social Media helps readers understand the foundations of and principles behind social media; manage and participate within online communities; and succeed in the changing field of modern public relations.

Virtuosa Organisation Graham Williams, 2015-07-27 This is a book about people in organisations developing love for themselves, others, communities and nature. It offers an opportunity to see afresh, to envisage courageously and to position yourself differently. To bring hearts, minds and wills to bear on the world around us. The life we live inside our organisations influences every other part of our lives. Here is a way to embrace the philosophy and practice of becoming a virtuous organisation and giving a dazzling performance. The book helps you to define where you are in your current experience of your organisation, and how you can shift things within yourself and around you. This is more than an adaptive or compliance process. It is about necessary, compelling and radical change and the authors show how it can, and has been done: Seeing the need. Arriving at the right values. Aligning individual and organisation values Determining appropriate behaviour indicators. Entrenching the values so that they become spontaneously lived virtues The mind-set, methods and techniques used during the process are important in each of these steps, especially the last where precious few have succeeded. Virtues drawn from the life and works of Leonardo da Vinci, and which span all cultures and generations, illustrate what is possible. The book includes: 1. Choosing and prioritising values 2. How are you living your personal values 3. Are we a congruent organisation? 4. Using anecdote circles to find out what shape your business is in 5. Personal mindfulness checklist 6. Do we have organisational blind-spots? 7. Journaling 8. What shadow-side factors should we be aware of in our organisation? 9. How integrated are we as an organisation? 10. The seeds of love 11. Ethical behaviour 12. Putting

Concepciones educativas en el pensamiento actual

Tamara Pando Ezcurra,Raúl Cabrejos Burga,2018-12-05 Este libro nos permite tener amplitud de los diferentes saberes y trazar caminos que permitan el análisis de los procesos de enseñanza, aprendizaje e innovación, cuidando minuciosamente las relaciones de sociedad, cultura y escuela permitiendo de esta manera la constante reflexión entre el saber y la práctica. Caminante no hay camino se hace camino al andar... es una frase metafórica que pretende darle sentido a esta obra de gran conocimiento, la cual invita a mirar las concepciones sobre pedagogía, maestro y práctica pedagógica e innovación. Ese camino implica en el maestro fundamentarse, tener un amplio pensamiento crítico para reflexionar, analizar, tener una postura política y ética que le permita proponer desde la realidad cambios educativos, recuperando de esta manera, la voz del maestro como intelectual de la educación. Hablar de formación, maestro y pedagogía actualmente, es reconocer que existe un saber y una práctica en la cual, parece que se volviera a plantear lo que ya muchos han discutido; sin embargo al hacer un estudio de esas concepciones es inevitable evidenciar que este debate sigue en construcción. Por lo tanto, esta obra explora las concepciones que en el devenir académico nos permite conocer la pedagogía como la base de la formación, como el saber, como el eje fundamental del docente lo cual marca el horizonte de su quehacer diario. La práctica, la teoría y el saber pedagógico deben ir siempre en constante armonía. Esto permite que al recibir formación puedan vislumbrar concepciones que al relacionarlas con la práctica pedagógica y la innovación les posibilite la emergencia de nuevas propuestas pedagógicas que mejoren en todas las dimensiones a los profesionales del campo de la educación.

Nominated as one of America's best-loved novels by PBS's The Great American Read Through Jean M. Auel's magnificent storytelling we are taken back to the dawn of modern humans, and with a girl named Ayla we are swept up in the harsh and beautiful Ice Age world they shared with the ones who called themselves The Clan of the Cave Bear. A natural disaster leaves the young girl wandering alone in an unfamiliar and dangerous land until she is found by a woman of the Clan, people very different from her own kind. To them, blond, blue-eyed Ayla looks peculiar and ugly—she is one of the Others, those who have moved into their ancient homeland; but Iza cannot leave the girl to die and takes her with them. Iza and Creb, the old Mog-ur, grow to love her, and as Ayla learns the ways of the Clan and Iza's way of healing, most come to accept her. But the brutal and proud youth who is destined to become their next leader sees her differences as a threat to his authority. He develops a deep and abiding hatred for the strange girl of the Others who lives in their midst, and is determined to get his revenge.
