Rise of the Radio Gods Chris Wright, 2023-08-02 Two high school buddies prank their way into a dream job on the radio. To save the radio station and their futures, they'll have to pull the best prank ever. The year was 1988 and every man in America dreamed of being Burt Reynolds. Or they were at least jealous of him for marrying Loni Anderson. Meanwhile, in the Atlanta suburbs, two teenage pranksters stumble into the dream job they never even knew they dreamed of... morning show hosts on a rock radio station. Richard finally has a shot at the successful life nobody believed he was capable of, but only if Brad gives up his college scholarship and a future partnership in his Dad's law firm. The odds are stacked against them with a program director who is pulling a prank of his own and could ruin them - and the station. Keeping the show alive for two weeks will take a miracle. Along with a little help from Atlanta's most popular baseball player, NASCAR's greatest living legend and an unsuspecting teenage pop starlet. Rise of the Radio Gods is the prequel to Blowing Up the Airwaves from real life radio veteran Chris Wright.

Radio in the Movies Laurence Etling,,Frank Barnas,Marie Barnas,2023-11-06 This richly detailed examination of two forms of American entertainment focuses on the various ways that radio stations and air personalities have been depicted in motion pictures, from 1926's The Radio Detective to more recent films like 2022's Halloween Ends. Newly updated and revised chapters cover the cinematic portrayals of various aspects of radio, including disc jockeys, sports broadcasts, religious programs and abnormal personalities on the air. Such films as The Big Broadcast (1932), Reveille with Beverly (1943), Mister Rock and Roll (1957), WUSA (1970), Radio Days (1987), Private Parts (1997), We Are Marshall (2006) and Straight Outta Compton (2015) provide fascinating insights into not only their own times but also the historical eras that some of these films have attempted to recreate.

God, Sex and Rock 'n Roll Alan Fisher,2011-03-07 This book is about everyman's awkward journey into manhood, without a roadmap or manual. Alan starts out as a rebel who follows his passions for rock 'n roll, radio, sex and the truth but finds himself a 40 year old lawyer with a home in the suburbs, a mortgage, a wife and two kids, asking "Is This All There Is?" Then he finds God but loses his family (to lose one's life to find it). A sometimes humorous, occasionally traumatic autobiography followed by the author sharing his tongue-in-cheek views on sex and his sacred, passionate articles on the God within all of us. Enjoy!

Superstar DJs Here We Go! Dom Phillips, 2009-03-05 It was about larging it. It was about pulling out a wad of 20s when you were buying your champagne at the bar. It was about buying your cocaine in an eight ball. It was about wearing designer clothes. At that top tier of that club scene, it was about giving it loads. With a foreword by music journalist, Miranda Sawyer, Superstar DJs Here We Go! is the full, unexpurgated story of the biggest pop culture phenomenon of the 1990s: the rise and fall of the superstar DJ. During the 1990s big names such as Sasha, Jeremy Healy, Fatboy Slim, Dave Seaman, Nicky Holloway, Judge Jules, and Pete Tong exploded out of acid house, becoming international jetsetters, flying all over the world just to play a few hours and commanding up to £140,000 a night. The plush, heavily branded 'superclubs' where they performed - clubs like Cream, Ministry, Renaissance and Gatecrasher - were filled with thousands of adoring clubbers, roaring their approval of their DJ gods. For the DJs and promoters, it was a licence to print money and live like a rock star. For clubbers, it was a hedonistic utopia where anyone and everyone could come together to look fabulous, take drugs, and dance the night away. But underneath the shiny surface lurked a darker side, a world of cynical moneymaking, rampant egos and cocaine-fuelled self-indulgence that eventually spiralled out of control leaving behind burnt-out DJs, jobless promoters and a host of bittersweet memories. They went from having the clubbing world at their feet to the world's biggest comedown. Dom Phillips - former editor of clubbers' bible Mixmag - reveals an enthralling and at times jaw-dropping account of flawed people, broken dreams and what really happens when it all goes Pete Tong.

River of Gods Ian McDonald, 2018-03-05 A superpower of two billion people, a dozen new nations from Kerala to the Himalayas, artificial intelligences, climate-change induced drought, water wars, strange new genders, genetically improved children that age at half the rate of baseline humanity, and a population where males outnumber females four to one. This is India in 2047, one hundred years after its birth. In the new nation of Bharat, in the face of the failure of the monsoon, nine lives are swept together — a gangster, a cop, his wife, a politician, a stand-up comic, a set designer, a journalist, a scientist, and a dropout — to decide the future of Mother India. River of Gods teems with the life of a country choked with peoples and cultures — one and a half billion people, twelve semi-independent nations, nine million gods. A war is fought, a love is betrayed, a mystery from a different world decoded, as the great river Ganges flows on. Praise for River of Gods: “[A] bold, brave look at India on the eve of its centennial, 41 years from now...McDonald takes his readers from India's darkest depths to its most opulent heights, from rioting mobs and the devastated poor to high-level politicians and lavish parties. He handles his complex plot with flair and confidence and deftly shows how technological advances and social changes have subtly changed lives. RIVER OF GODS is a major achievement from a writer who is becoming one of the best sf novelists of our time.” —Washington Post “[P]erhaps his most accomplished novel to date... reminiscent of William Gibson in full-throttle cultural-immersion mode, packed with technical jargon, religious and sociological observation and allusions to art both high and low... RIVER OF GODS amply rewards careful consideration and more than delivers its share of straight-ahead entertainment. Already a multiple-award nominee following its British publication, McDonald's latest ranks as one of the best science fiction novels published in the United States this year." —San Francisco Chronicle "A staggering achievement, brilliantly imagined and endlessly surprising ... A brave, brilliant and wonderful novel." —Christopher Priest, The Guardian Radio Daze 1970-1976 Mitch McCracken, 2012-08-06 Take a behind the scenes look at what radio was really like in the seventies through the eyes of a Memphis DJ. Read firsthand accounts of some of the seventies biggest stars and a 1974 interview with Jim Morrison (just three years after his death). Radio Daze is a lighthearted look at some serious issues, but mostly good times. Learn what it was like to be a disc jockey in the seventies. How much fun it was and how different it was from radio today. I have been in radio all my adult life, I played Classic Rock before it was classic, it was just rock. I have been a Program Director, Music Director, Promotions Director and Research Director in addition to my On Air work. WMC-FM100, WZXR Rock103, WHBQ, WRVR (The River), and WMPS FM (The Pig) are the stations that I have worked for in Memphis. I also worked for The Father of Rock and Roll Sam Phillips of Sun Records at his station in Florence, AL, WQLT. In New Orleans I worked at WRNO and WNOE FM. I spent fifteen years in Las Vegas and added KMZQ, KFBI, KWNR and KFM to my resume there. I swore every summer was going to be my last when I lived in Las Vegas. I married my best friend and we had our two children, Justin and Randee, while living there. As anyone in radio will tell you it's really hard on a marriage. Mine was no different. I also did local record promotion for ABC Records in New Orleans and National Promotion for Fretone Records ("Disco Duck") owned by Estelle Axton of Stax Records fame. Here's what people are saying about Radio Daze: "Mitch, very good book, you did everything you set out to do." – George Klein (Author of Elvis, My Best Man) "You have a God given talent to be able to express yourself through your writing. You express yourself so eloquently.

You have a way to bear your innermost thoughts, you exposed your soul. You tell your story with humor and clarity.” – Chris Coffey “Mitch knows as much about American popular music as anyone I know, and better yet, he knows how to make it come alive in print. His prose makes you feel like you're right in the room with one of the musical stars whom he's describing. He can also lead you through the back alleys of popular music's fakes and freaks, such as the Jim Morrison pretender whom he hilariously exposed.” – Mark Hoffman, Co-author of Moanin' at Midnight: The Life and Times of Howlin' Wolf “Mitch is a rare gem in a mountain of Rock Music.... We first met years ago when he was an on air personality at a small “rebel” station in Memphis. His voice, personality and knowledge of music became a major force in turning a cult following into a hugely successful radio station. He helped launch the careers of many huge artists of today.” – Jimi Jamison, lead singer of Survivor

FM Richard Neer, 2001-12-18 It was all so honest, before the end of our collective innocence. Top Forty jocks screamed and yelled and sounded mightier than God on millions of transistor radios. But on FM radio it was all spun out for only you. On a golden web by a master weaver driven by fifty thousand magical watts of crystal clear power . . . before the days of trashy, hedonistic dumbspeak and disposable three-minute ditties . . . in the days where rock lived at many addresses in many cities. –from FM As a young man, Richard Neer dreamed of landing a job at WNEW in New York—one of the revolutionary FM stations across the country that were changing the face of radio by rejecting strict formatting and letting disc jockeys play whatever they wanted. He felt that when he got there, he'd have made the big time. Little did he know he'd have shaped rock history as well. FM: The Rise and Fall of Rock Radio chronicles the birth, growth, and death of free-form rock-and-roll radio through the stories of the movement's flagship stations. In the late sixties and early seventies—at stations like KSAN in San Francisco, WBCN in Boston, WMMR in Philadelphia, KMET in Los Angeles, WNEW, and others—disc jockeys became the gatekeepers, critics, and gurus of new music. Jocks like Scott Muni, Vin Scelsa, Jonathan Schwartz, and Neer developed loyal followings and had incredible influence on their listeners and on the early careers of artists such as Bruce Springsteen, Genesis, the Cars, and many others. Full of fascinating firsthand stories, FM documents the commodification of an iconoclastic phenomenon, revealing how counterculture was coopted and consumed by the mainstream. Richard Neer was an eyewitness to, and participant in, this history. FM is the tale of his exhilarating ride.

Twilight of the Gods Steven Hyden, 2018-05-08 National Bestseller * Named one of Rolling Stone's Best Music Books of 2018 * One of Newsweek's 50 Best Books of 2018 * A Billboard Best of 2018 * A New York Times Book Review New and Noteworthy selection The author of the critically acclaimed Your Favorite Band is Killing Me offers an eye-opening exploration of the state of classic rock, its past and future, the impact it has had, and what its loss would mean to an industry, a culture, and a way of life. Since the late 1960s, a legendary cadre of artists—including the Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, Neil Young, Bruce Springsteen, Fleetwood Mac, the Eagles, Black Sabbath, and the Who—has revolutionized popular culture and the sounds of our lives. While their songs still get airtime and some of these bands continue to tour, its idols are leaving the stage permanently. Can classic rock remain relevant as these legends die off, or will this major musical subculture fade away as many have before, Steven Hyden asks. In this mix of personal memoir, criticism, and journalism, Hyden stands witness as classic rock reaches the precipice. Traveling to the eclectic places where geriatric rockers are still making music, he talks to the artists and fans who have aged with them, explores the ways that classic rock has changed the culture, investigates the rise and fall of classic rock radio, and turns to live bootlegs, tell-all rock biographies, and even the liner notes of rock's greatest masterpieces to tell the story of what this music meant, and how it will be remembered, for fans like himself. Twilight of the Gods is also Hyden's story. Celebrating his love of this incredible music that has taken him from adolescence to fatherhood, he ponders two essential questions: Is it time to give up on his childhood heroes, or can this music teach him about growing old with his hopes and dreams intact? And what can we all learn from rock gods and their music—are they ephemeral or eternal?

No Gods, No Masters, No Requests Christopher Alker,2022-12-12 This book is a labor of love rooted in practice, not theory. It revolves around DJing, DJ culture, dance music, and nightlife. It is a collection of personal stories, ideas, histories, and observations roughly grouped by theme, but can be read in any order or in part without consequence. It contains a large body of previously published work not found in one place until now. Most of the work has been rewritten and new material, exclusive to this book, has been added. While the book contains historical elements that have been fact checked using the most available information, it is not an exhaustive resource and should not be treated as such. It is designed to entertain and inspire DJs and subcultural enthusiasts alike without bogging down the reader with unnecessary rigor that would distract him or her from the ideas that are at the heart of the text.
