La radio en Iberoamérica Arturo Merayo Pérez,2007 Este libro se erige como la primera obra de referencia, tanto en español como en inglés, que aborda el estudio de la radio en los diferentes países iberoamericanos. La obra, coordinada por el Doctor Arturo Merayo, reúne las aportaciones de más de veinte estudiosos y profesionales del medio de toda Iberoamérica con el objetivo de dotar a las instituciones académicas españolas, iberoamericanas y anglosajonas, de un texto de referencia básico para conocer cómo son y qué se hace en la radio de estos países. El espíritu de esta obra queda bien reflejado en las propias palabras del profesor Merayo: «[...] estuve varias semanas realizando búsquedas acerca de la radio en Iberoamérica. Encontré varios títulos en los que se analizaba, en ocasiones pormenorizadamente, la radio de un determinado país. En esos casos, casi siempre el estudio se limitaba a aspectos históricos sin entrar casi nunca en los análisis de audiencia ni en los aspectos empresariales. Pero no encontré un solo título, ya fuera en español o en inglés, que abordara la radio iberoamericana en su conjunto, analizándola de manera homogénea, país por país, y repasando no sólo su historia sino su evolución jurídica, su estructura empresarial, sus audiencias y las tendencias de futuro. Esto es precisamente lo que por vez primera intenta esta obra. Un análisis global de la radio en Iberoamérica.» Con este libro el lector conocerá en poco tiempo los datos fundamentales de la radio de cualquier país iberoamericano, informaciones que no encontrará recopiladas en ningún otro lugar. Encontraremos aquí un análisis de la realidad radiofónica singular de cada país, presentado a modo de informe en el que, respetando la libertad de cada uno de los autores, se describen en cada caso al menos cinco aspectos esenciales: 1. Evolución histórica: Comienzos, desarrollo, consolidación, experiencias singulares destacadas. Principales figuras históricas de la radiodifusión. Principales programas. Hitos históricos en los que la radio ha desempeñado un papel decisivo. 2. Radio y libertad: Breve evolución histórica de la legislación radiofónica y situación actual. La lucha por la libertad: el problema de la censura. La radio comunitaria. Las radios alternativas. Las radios indigenistas. 3. Estructura del sector radiofónico: Principales cadenas y estaciones. Propiedad. Vinculación con otros sectores comunicativos o empresariales. Índices de audiencia: penetración social, FM y AM, radio generalista y especializada... 4. La programación: Descripción de las principales programaciones y de sus contenidos. La radio educativa. Experiencias novedosas con éxito. Tendencias de futuro. 5. La radio del siglo XXI: Prospectiva. Radio en internet. La radio en la era digital. La radio en el entorno multimedia. Arturo Merayo, Doctor en Ciencias de la Información, es Decano de la Facultad de Ciencias Sociales y de la Comunicación de la Universidad Católica de Murcia (España). Catedrático de Comunicación Radiofónica en esa misma Universidad, imparte clases de Comunicación y Programación Radiofónica. Fue profesor titular de Comunicación e Información Radiofónica

Fue el director del Máster de Locución Audiovisual en dicha Facultad, profesor del Máster de radio de la Cadena COPE, del Máster de Dirección y gestión de empresas radiofónicas de la Cadena Ser (PRISA), ...etc. Como profesional del periodismo ha sido coordinador de los servicios informativos de la Cadena SER en Castilla y León; Delegado en Castilla y León de Expansión y Actualidad Económica; columnista del diario ABC; corresponsal de ORT/Press y Europa Press, y director de programación de Televisión Palencia. Listening In Susan J. Douglas, 2013-11-30 Few inventions evoke such nostalgia, such deeply personal and vivid memories as radio—from Amos 'n' Andy and Edward R. Murrow to Wolfman Jack and Howard Stern. Listening In is the first in-depth history of how radio culture and content have kneaded and expanded the American psyche. But Listening In is more than a history. It is also a reconsideration of what listening to radio has done to American culture in the twentieth century and how it has brought a completely new auditory dimension to our lives. Susan Douglas explores how listening has altered our day-to-day experiences and our own generational identities, cultivating different modes of listening in different eras; how radio has shaped our views of race, gender roles, ethnic barriers, family dynamics, leadership, and the generation gap. With her trademark wit, Douglas has created an eminently readable cultural history of radio.

Multilatinas Veneta Andonova, Mauricio Losada-Otálora, 2017-11-27 The challenges faced by Latin American multinational companies, or multilatinas, often require unique strategies tailored to a demanding global environment. This book studies the strategies of internationalism exercised by large multilatinas, offering the first systematic, quantitative effort to examine the pattern of their international investments within the context of their competitive position in the domestic market. Multilatinas uncovers common strategies among sixty-two multilatinas from six countries, and emphasizes the unique challenges they face, as well as the diversity of their organizational resources. It also brings the institutional environment of Latin American countries to the fore, assessing its role as an essential component in understanding internationalization decisions. Finally, the book studies the role of non-market organizational resources such as bribes, negotiations and favours in business strategies. Multilatinas is an invaluable read for students, scholars, practitioners and executives studying Latin America's place in international business.

Women Made Visible Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda, 2019-04-01 2020 Canadian Association for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CALACS) Book Prize In post-1968 Mexico a group of artists and feminist activists began to question how feminine bodies were visually constructed and politicized across media. Participation of women was increasing in the public sphere, and the exclusive emphasis on written culture was giving way to audio-visual communications. Motivated by a desire for self-representation both visually and in politics, female artists and activists transformed existing regimes of media and visibility. Women Made Visible by Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda uses a transnational and interdisciplinary lens to analyze the fundamental and overlooked role played by artists and feminist activists in changing the ways female bodies were viewed and appropriated. Through their concern for self-representation (both visually and in formal politics), these women played a crucial role in transforming existing regimes of media and visibility—increasingly important intellectual spheres of action. Foregrounding the work of female artists and their performative and visual, rather than written, interventions in urban space in Mexico City, Aceves Sepúlveda demonstrates that these women feminized Mexico's mediascapes and shaped the debates over the female body, gender difference, and sexual violence during the last decades of the twentieth century. Weaving together the practices of activists, filmmakers, visual artists, videographers, and photographers, Women Made Visible questions the disciplinary boundaries that have historically undermined the practices of female artists and activists and locates the development of Mexican second-wave feminism as a meaningful actor in the contested political spaces of the era, both in Mexico City and internationally.
