Education Kids

Guess Whats in the Picture John Brown,2015-11-02 Guess Whats In The Picture is the start of many other books in a series of guess whats in the picture to come, for ages 5 and up. This is the first with illustrations of different things for children to guess whats in the picture. The first page will have a couple of hints about the picture, and a Liquified picture on the right, that is smeared a little. When the child guesses what the picture is, they can turn the page to see the answer and on the right page is the normal picture. Kids will love this book for the fun of guessing with some really cool looking images. This book has 34 images and 72 pages, and kids will enjoy the fun pictures. This book is great for a child to use their brain to try and figure out the image that is smeared a little, but not to much that the child can not guess what it is, plus this book is a learning tool for the kids when reading the hints, which have some back ground to the pictures that they'll be guessing. This book will be fun for mom and dad to read and share with the whole family.

Guess Who? Margaret Miller,1994-09-15 A simple question is posed along with a picture of a child in a familiar situation. On the opposite page are four picture choices; the answers are funny and ridiculous. Flip the page and the correct picture and words appear, in a clever visual game that develops logical thinking and categorizing skills. Large, color photographs make this a perfect book for sharing.--Boston Globe.
