101 Ways to Profit in the Natural Hair Care Business Alva J Clemons, 2014-06-09 101 Ways to Profit in the Natural Hair Care Business is the brainchild of Alva Clemons. Alva's own professional aspirations and business experiences serve as the catalyst for the formulas and advice presented in this text. Alva's craftiness utilized in this book, shares valuable lessons learned from the multi entrepreneurial businesses she has attempted, created and developed over the past fifteen years. 101 Ways to Profit in the Natural Hair Care Business is a step by step tool designed to provoke critical thinking. The book challenges its reader to conduct a broad assessment of the reader's own abilities and talents. The book encourages its reader to formally correlate individual abilities and talents identified to proposed sectors of the natural hair industry and viable needs specific to those sectors. Once correlations are formed, the book's interactive design presents the reader with income generating possibilities within the context of participation in the industry. The brilliance of this book may be found not simply in its conducting the correlation between abilities, talents and industry application, but instead the unequivocal discovery of personal resources that are both in demand as well as profitable. 101 Ways to Profit

in the Natural Hair Care Business enjoys the additional distinction of not being just another self-help text, but a riveting read that provokes the kind of introspect that serves, empowers and motivates the reader to an achievable end. The text not only identifies real opportunities within the natural hair industry but also fuels, through informed suggestions, specific business initiatives that would be conducive to already established business practices. 101 Ways to Profit in the Natural Hair Care Business is an exceptional resource with applicability regardless of the size or scope of each reader's entrepreneurial dream.

The Cinema of Discomfort Geoff King, 2021-10-07
How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort, awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty? This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film. While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences □ or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome □ The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner. Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters. It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters. It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities. It often refuses information on which to base judgments. More discomfortingly, cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult, sometimes controversial, characters or events. The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case-studies, including Palindromes by Todd Solondz (US) and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos (Greece), along with other examples from Austria, Sweden, the UK, the US and Germany. Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated, it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained, as products of both their socio-cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film.
