Blow Dry This! Hilda Villaverde, 2007-10 Everyone's life is a story! From the time we are born until we pass away, our life story is gathered from experiences, people, circumstances, and choices. We tell our stories, we listen to others tell theirs, we make them up and exaggerate them, and, many times, we become the story instead of who we really are. It's a well-known fact that one of the best times to tell and listen to stories is while having your hair done. Blow Dry This! Stories From Behind the Chair is a captivating assortment of people's stories collected from a, not so ordinary, hair salon. They are warm and tender, outrageous and hilarious, but mostly, the stories reveal the greatest desire of all people--the need for authentic happiness.

Me, My Hair, and I Elizabeth Benedict, 2015-09-29 Ask a woman about her hair, and she just might tell you the story of her life. Ask a whole bunch of women about their hair, and you could get a history of the world. Surprising, insightful, frequently funny, and always forthright, the essays in Me, My Hair, and I are reflections and revelations about every aspect of women's lives from family, race, religion, and motherhood to culture, health, politics, and sexuality. They take place in African American kitchens, at Hindu Bengali weddings, and inside Hasidic Jewish homes. The conversation is intimate and global at once. Layered into these reminiscences are tributes to influences throughout history: Jackie Kennedy, Lena Horne, Farrah Fawcett, the Grateful Dead, and Botticelli's Venus. The long and the short of it is that our hair is our glory—and our nemesis, our history, our self-esteem, our joy, our mortality. Every woman knows that many things in life matter more than hair, but few bring as much pleasure as a really great hairdo. A terrific read for those of us who obsess about our hair. Or those who live with those of us who do. A collection that's, I dare say, a cut above the rest.” —Mary Morris, author of The Jazz Palace

Hair Raising Stories Jean Breton, 2009-08 HAIR RAISING STORIES is a book about a number of my experiences as a hairdresser. Being in the business for twenty seven years, I have encountered many walks of life that have come through the salon door and have sat in my chair. The stories are all true, (believe me, I'd be hard pressed to make half this stuff up!) Although geared toward hair dressers world wide, it has universal appeal. There are many lessons to be learned throughout life and many lessons I have learned by working with the public and through my clients themselves. Many are humorous and will tickle the funny bone, while others will pull and tug at the heart. The reader will be drawn in and know they are not alone as they will be able to relate to some or most of the stories.

Perish by Pedicure Nancy J. Cohen, 2009-07-01 Fire up the flat iron and break out the bullet-proof blow drier, because Marla Shore-the sassy, South Florida beauty salon owner with a knack for fixing hair and finding trouble-is back... Beauty shows are not always known for cold-blooded murder, but that's exactly the case when Luxor Products company director Christine Parks is found dead in her hotel roomfacedown in a foot bath. It doesn't take long into Marla's investigation to discover that everyone who worked with Christine had a reason to hate her. From serial cheating to indulging in blackmail and bad investment advice, she was a walking Bad Hair Day, and the list of possible suspects is longer than a pop diva's hair extensions. And when a model with top-secret information for Marla turns up dead, things go from bad to worse in a hurry. Behind the thumping house music and dazzling, high-platform hair tricks of Florida's hottest beauty show, something very ugly is going down, something that goes beyond polish and style to the killer-takes-all ambition of the beauty biz. If Marla isn't careful, she just may end up on the wrong end of a murderer's very skillful hands... Cohen fashions her Bad Hair Day series with plenty of humor, snappy repartee and even a healthy helping of current events. --Fort Myers Press-News
