Tolley's Tax and the Business Car 1999/2000 Alison Chapman,1999

Tolley's Tax and the Business Car 2001-02 Alison Chapman,2001 Updated for the forthcoming 2002 tax changes, this guide to the provision of company cars - from both a corporate and individual perspective - discusses planning and administration requirements to implement and explain the most tax-efficient company car policies. The book looks at the advantages and disadvantages of the different fleet strategies available, pointing out which are the most cost-effective and tax-efficient. The disks supplied allow the user to enter their own details to calculate their personal company car tax position, as well as computing some of the more common corporate issues, such as capital allowances and expensive car leasing disallowances. Used in conjunction with the book, the disks make the examples specific to the individual's circumstances in an interactive format. The book is laid out in a logical manner, highlighting the key tax and remuneration issues facing both employers and employees.
