Unburying My Father Zander Masser, 2022-04-21 Randy Masser was a New York-based professional photographer. He lived with a bleeding disorder called Hemophilia. In the early 1980s, the blood supply used to manufacture treatments for hemophilia was contaminated with HIV. Randy contracted HIV and died on January 6, 2000 from AIDS-related illnesses. Twenty years after his death, Randy's son, Zander, unburied his entire photographic collection, totalling ten thousand slides. Zander gathered stories about his father from the people who knew and loved him. What began as an attempt to archive and share Randy's photography evolved into 'Unburying my Father', a transformative experience of learning to heal from grief through creativity. The book is available for purchase directly from the author at www.randymasserphoto.com

Motivation and Child Maltreatment David J. Hansen,2000 In this volume, the concept of motivation is used to shed light on a range of complex issues surrounding the maltreatment of children. Cathy Spatz Widom investigates the role of motivation in the intergenerational transmission of violence, where victimized children themselves become perpetrators of violence as adults. Joel S. Milner looks at the way abusive parents process social information related to children. The biological, psychological, and social-contextual regulatory processes in maltreated children are considered by Dante Cicchetti and Sheree L. Toth. Deborah Daro discusses the current status of efforts to eliminate maltreatment of children and offers an alternative model for approaching the concept and practice of prevention. John R. Lutzker addresses the challenges of and procedures for applied research on the treatment of abusive parents. In his concluding essay Ross A. Thompson highlights the important themes focusing on child maltreatment that underlie this volume. David J. Hansen is a professor of psychology and director of the Clinical Psychology Training Program at the University of Nebraska.
