Ngành PR Việt Nam: Có cần một Hiệp hội PR? Le Tran Bao Phuong, 2015-07-01 Sách bản quyền miễn phí - Hỗ trợ làm luận văn Cử nhân/Thạc sĩ Truyền thông -----

Ngành PR Việt Nam: Có cần một Hiệp hội PR?" là cuốn sách thứ 2 của tôi dùng để chia sẻ những thông tin, kiến thức bổ ích về PR sau quyển sách "Quyền năng bí ẩn: Khám phá 5 nghệ thuật tối thượng điều khiển hành vi đám đông." Khác với quyển sách đầu tiên mang đậm tính ứng dụng bởi tiết lộ nhiều kĩ thuật PR quyền lực, nhằm giúp bạn hiểu được cách thức vận hành, điều khiển hành vi đám đông, cuốn sách thứ 2 mang đậm tính chất nghiên cứu và thời sự. - Thời sự chỗ nào? - Ở chỗ này:

- Việt Nam vẫn chưa có Hiệp Hội Quan hệ Công chúng (Hiệp hội PR) trong khi các quốc gia Đông Nam Á khác như Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thái Lan, Philippine đã có các hiệp hội PR của riêng họ cách đây 40 - 50 năm. Vì sao vậy?
- Lợi ích gì sẽ đạt được nếu có một quốc gia có một Hiệp hội PR?
- Tại Việt Nam, ai sẽ là người hưởng lợi khi có một Hiệp hội PR? Chắc chắn là những người thực hành PR, các doanh nghiệp và cả nền kinh tế sẽ đạt được nhiều lợi ích từ nó.
- Nếu tốt như thế thì tại sao đến giờ vẫn chưa có Hiệp hội PR tại Việt Nam? Cái gì đang cản trở? Trước thời điểm công trình này được công bố, vẫn chưa có lời giải thích chính thức nào cho mối quan tâm lớn này, mặc dù tôi tin rằng có nhiều người biết rõ lý do. Kết quả công bố của công trình nghiên cứu cũng chính là câu trả lời chính thức. Nội dung chính của cuốn sách này thực chất là bảng tóm tắt ngắn gọn các ý lớn được rút trích ra từ công trình nghiên cứu về thực trạng ngành PR tại Việt Nam hiện nay. Nếu cần đào sâu chi tiết, bạn nên đọc bản gốc tiếng Anh được chia sẻ đầy đủ, miễn phí. Dù kết quả nghiên cứu sẽ không tránh khỏi những tranh luận sau khi công bố, nhưng sự thật Việt Nam vẫn chưa có Hiệp hội PR nào, và đã trễ hơn so với các nước láng giềng gần nửa thế

kỷ. Và vì thông qua cuộc nghiên cứu này, những góc khuất của ngành PR đã được đưa ra ánh sáng để chúng ta cùng nhận biết, cùng đào sâu nghiên cứu thêm và cùng giải quyết. Đó là mục đích chính để công bố công trình nghiên cứu này. Và điều này đã được hoàn thành trọn vẹn. Việc công bố kết quả này là phi lợi nhuận, và nằm trong sứ mệnh của tôi là đóng góp một phần công sức cho sự phát triển lành mạnh và chuẩn mực của ngành PR tại Việt Nam. Chia sẻ cùng bạn thưởng thức! A Lifetime in the Eye of the Storm Andre Nguyen Van Chau, 2015-01-20 History is colored by the nation that is recording it. In America, the Vietnam War was chronicled in the newspapers and on television. The heart breaking stories we heard were always about the war from the American viewpoint. When we are able to view historical events from perspectives other than our own, we begin to understand that the important thing isn't winning or losing, but learning and understanding. Hiep lived her life, from earliest childhood, at the center of the war. This is her story of love and loss, triumph and tragedy. It is the story of all women who have lived through a war, with only their steadfast love, hope and faith in God to give them the strength to go on living.

Mr. Duck Hiep Thi Le, 2021-10-22 Hiep Thi Le was born in 1971 one of seven children in Da Nang, Vietnam. At the tender age of eight, she and her younger sister stowed away on a fishing boat, believing their mother was aboard. It was a perilous journey which landed the sisters in the first of several refugee camps. Hiep's family was eventually reunited years later in Northern California. Once in the US, Hiep taught herself to read and write English. She was educated at Oakland high school and studied pre-med at the University of California, Davis. It was during college that on a whim she agreed to accompany her sister and friends to an open casting call for the Oliver Stone film Heaven and Earth. Hiep was surprised to receive a call back the following week. After an arduous five-month audition including thousands of applicants for the lead role, the part was hers. Following Heaven and Earth, Hiep continued to act in several films and television shows. In 2002 she began a second career in the restaurant business, first as chef at China Beach Bistro in Venice Beach and later as both chef and owner of Le Cellier in Marina Del Rey. Hiep courageously battled stomach cancer and died at the age of 46 in early 2018. She is survived by her husband, their two children and her parents. Above all, Hiep was the proud mother of two.

Vietnam's Foreign Policy under Doi Moi Le Hong Hiep, Anton Tsvetov, 2018-03-19 In 1986, the Communist Party of Vietnam (CPV) adopted the Doi Moi (Renovation) policy at its sixth national congress, opening up a new chapter in the country's modern history. Under Doi Moi, Vietnam has undergone significant socio-economic, political and foreign policy reforms that have transformed the country in many meaningful ways. This edited volume aims to provide an in-depth analysis of the multiple aspects and transformations of Vietnam's foreign policy over the past thirty years. The book is divided into three sections. The first covers the broader framework of Vietnam's foreign policymaking and the historical evolution of Vietnam's diplomacy under Doi Moi. The second examines Vietnam's bilateral relationships with its major partners, namely the United States, China, Japan, India, Russia, its smaller neighbours (Cambodia and Laos), and ASEAN. Finally, the book looks into two major issues in Vietnam's current foreign policy: the management of the South China Sea disputes and the international economic integration process. As the most informative, updated and comprehensive volume on Vietnam's foreign policy under Doi Moi, the book is a useful reference source for academics, policymakers, students as well as anyone interested in contemporary Vietnam in general and its foreign policy in particular.

Living Next to the Giant Le Hong Hiep, 2016-12-23

This book examines how the interaction between political and economic factors under Doi Moi has shaped Vietnam's China policy and bilateral relations since the late 1980s. After providing a historical background, the book examines the conflicting effects that Doi Moi has generated on bilateral relations. It demonstrates that Vietnam's economic considerations following the adoption of Doi Moi contributed decidedly to the Sino-Vietnamese normalization in 1991 as well as the continuous improvements in bilateral ties ever since. At the same time, Vietnam's economic activities in the South China Sea and China's responses have intensified bilateral rivalry and put their ties under considerable strains. The book goes on to argue that Doi Moi has indeed brought Vietnam newfound opportunities to develop a multi-level omni-directional hedging strategy against China. Finally, the book concludes by looking at the prospects of democratization in both countries and assessing the future trajectory of their relations under such circumstances. As the most comprehensive and up-to-date survey of Vietnam's relations with China over the past thirty years, the book is a useful reference source for academics, policymakers, students, and anyone interested in contemporary Vietnam foreign policy in general and Vietnam-China relations in particular.

Daughter of the Sea Hiep Thi Le, 2021-10-22 An unforgettable Voyage... Memoir of an 8-year old boat person who flees post-war communist Vietnam in search of a father and brother rumoured to have escaped to the West. Braving sea storms and pirates in a overloaded fishing boat, Hiep and her younger sister are rescued by British sailors and interned in a series of horrific Hong Kong refugee camps. Surviving by their wits, these displaced children of the sea create their own primitive society amid the dispirited and desperate adults awaiting sponsors in the U.S. At the age of eight in 1979, the Vietnam-born actress and her seven-years-old sister were separated from their parents and left their village in central Vietnam as boat people. Their mother and older brother stayed behind with her other children. The sisters lived in refugee camps in Hong Kong for three months, where they were reunited with their father. They then immigrated to California before reuniting with their five other siblings. Her mother finally reunited with the family four years later. Hiep was a premed student at UC-Davis, majoring in physiology, when she came to the open casting

call with one of her sisters for the Oliver Stone film Heaven & Earth (1993) that was being held at San Jose State University because several of her friends were doing it for fun. She was one of the sixteen thousand Vietnamese Americans seen by casting scouts for the film and was the one, out of the thousands, who got the starring role of Le Ly Hayslip. Despite having no acting experience, she had half-dozen callbacks before she was finally chosen to play the role of Le Ly Hayslip between the ages of thirteen to thirty-eight. Since that time, She acted in several films and television shows. She has graduated from college. She was the owner and operator of the China Beach Vietnamese Bistro in Venice, California. She is now owner and Chef of Le Cellier Restaurant Wine Bar in Marina Del Rey, California. complications from stomach cancer on Dec. 19, 2017 in Los Angeles Hiep passed away. She was 46. Above all, Hiep is the proud mother of two. Author Hiep Thi Le Co-founder Jill Powell Since I've know her from, Hiep always turned something negative into a positive. As a child, she faced her dangers, adversities and self doubts with an innocence and sense of adventure which reflects the true resilience of refugee children separated from their families and left to fend for themselves. -Le Ly Hayslip (Heaven and Earth) Most of us 'come-of-age' not just once, but many times as we navigate life's passages. Hiep's harrowing, true-life journey from innocent village girl to street-wise refugee--told with charm, humor, and precocious wisdom--turns a boat-person's Lord of the Flies into a true Vietnamese Exodus: the portrait of a blossoming young American painted with a bamboo brush. Like a river flowing to the sea, Hiep's story sweeps us past many amazing people, places, and events that most of us can scarcely imagine. It's a voyage you won't want to miss. - Jay Wurts, coauthor of When Heaven and Earth Changed

The Road to Freedom III Hiep Vo, 2005-02 The story is very strange to everybody, especially to the ones who have not lost the freedom. The readers would ask themselves, Is it the real life story? The Road to Freedom is too hard and risky. The dear price to pay for freedom is the life of the author and all the people who want to get there. The story is very attractive and amazes the reader from beginning to end. Kevin Dinh- Former captain ARVN. After reading your true story, THE ROAD TO FREEDOM, I know that many times you were confronted with powerful, bad authorities and fearlessly faced danger to save or help weak and poor people. You have acted chivalrously; you can be proud, and we also can be proud of you. This story lets everyone know about a black period of Vietnam's history. San Jose, California, July 2, 2001. The Girl from Tam Hiep W Conroy, 2021-06-29 It's part love story, part war story...a growing up story...with the US Army in the mid Sixties during the American war in Viet Nam. Pvt. Bill Collins lives on the fringe of Long Binh, the worlds largest base camp that's 20 miles or so north of Saigon. He's a participant in the 'Sex, Drugs and Rock and Roll' war of legend. Sex is everywhere, booze is everywhere, and danger is everywhere. However, Tam Hiep, the supposed VC town, the Off-Limits town, is accommodating to most everyone who ventures within. It is also a place where love might flourish. Collins and his fellow soldiers meander through their life with the Green Machine, patrolling the surrounding countryside when not on the road to Saigon, or whoreing and drinking in the dives and fleshpots of Bien Hoa. Whether it's flying to Da Nang and Hue or over the road to Phnom Penh with the girl Kim Lon, Pvt. Collins continues on his journey towards love and survival.

Vietnam's Industrialization Ambitions Le Hong Hiep, 2019-01-29 Vietnam has officially admitted its failure to achieve industrialized economy status by 2020. This failure is partly due to its inability to grow a strong local manufacturing base and develop key strategic industries. The participation of Vingroup, the country's largest private conglomerate, in the automotive industry has sparked new hopes for Vietnam's industrialization drive. The company, through its subsidiary Vinfast, aims to become a leading automaker in Southeast Asia with an annual capacity of 500,000 units and a localization ratio of 60 per cent by 2025. Challenges that Vinfast faces include its unproven track record in the industry; the limited size of the national car market; the lack of infrastructure to support car usage in Vietnam; the intense competition from foreign brands; and its initial reliance on imported technologies and know-hows. However, Vinfast enjoys certain advantages in the domestic market, including the large potential of the Vietnamese automotive market; its freedom as a new automaker to define its business strategies without having to deal with legacy issues; Vingroup's sound business and financial performance and its ecosystem; strong support from the Vietnamese government; and nationalist sentiments that will encourage certain Vietnamese customers to choose its products. If Vinfast is successful, it will boost Vietnam's GDP growth and reinvent the country's automotive industry. Its success will also contribute significantly to the realization of Vietnam's industrialization ambitions and bring private actors into the centre stage of the economy. If the company fails, however, it will cause considerable problems for both Vingroup and the Vietnamese economy.

People Performance Improvement Hiep Nguyen, 2023-06-07 Human performance changes the history of human civilization. The world is changing every day, and that requires you to think about the future and strive to improve yourself constantly to be successful in a fiercely competitive environment. Charles Handy once said: The greatest excitement of the future is that we can shape it. So how will you develop a sense of foresight about where it needs to be heading? How will it create a meaningful vision and purpose in your life to achieve sustainable success? Why is searching for success always the most important issue in every human's life? And how can you achieve success? The answer, in three words: Heart - Consciousness - Action Only those who have Heart-Consciousness - Action can change the history of human civilization. Everybody desires to succeed in work and in life. No matter which era they are living in, whether they are luxurious or vile, or what their position is, people need to improve their personality and morality, considering it as one of the keys to sustainable success in work and life. The road to success therefore begins with a perception that success is a process of continuous training and learning over time. This is also the main theme of my paper - People Performance Improvement. It is hoped that this paper will bring about an important change in the continuous improvement model for individuals, families, and organizations in the process of world integration. Plenty of people believe that success comes from one's innate gifts and talents. Actually, such belief is not true. Success is mainly the result of the efforts in the training process to build a habit of continuous improvement to enhance one's performance for success. The HIEP Model - Habit, Improvement, Effort, Performance - has something for everyone. The businessperson, the entrepreneur, the manager, and the employee at any level will find lots of models and practical suggestions to improve their business, their processes, their performance, and their work outcome. 2019 Copyright by Nguyen Hiep. na H K Peter, Peter Manh Hiep Nguyen, 2012-01-16 I had never been a religious or God believing person in all of my life. In fact, I was a blasphemous, adulterer, and sinner. Having had many bad habits, I led a life of lies and deceit. I had many success as well as downfalls. I had a terrible illness which almost ended my life back in December of 2010 where I was living in the city of Manila, Philippines. On one early afternoon, as I was laying and wasting away on my bed, I suddenly saw and felt a bright light dawned upon my body. I felt completely warm and safe. This light was the beginning of the descending of His Holy Spirit entering into my body. Yes, Christ came down and took possession of my body on this very day. For a period of 6 hours, Christ took possession of my body and moved its parts in various positions- twisting, turning, and squeezing; much like one would twist on a wet-dirty-rag to rinse out the dirty-filthy-water. My body was the wet rag, and the illness within me was the dirty-filthy-water being rinsed out. I was completely awake and alert throughout the miracle. My body was possessed but my mind was freed to witness Him. After the miracle was over, I awoke a new man, freed from my lifelong sicknesses. It was as if I had never been sick. It was then that I finally believed in God. And it was then, that He started to show me how He had been in my life all along and not just on that one day; for He then had His Spirit reveal everything that He had done in my life. All of which I have documented here. And now, I am blessed to live and share it with the world.

Numerical Simulation of 3-D Incompressible Unsteady Viscous Laminar Flows Michel Deville, Thien-Hiep Lê, Yves Morchoisne, 2013-03-09 The GAMM-Committee for Numerical Methods in Fluid Mechanics (GAMM-Fachausschuss für Numerische Methoden in der Strömungsmechanik) has sponsored the organization of a GAMM Workshop dedicated to the numerical simulation of three dimensional incompressible unsteady viscous laminar flows to test Navier-Stokes solvers. The Workshop was held in Paris from June 12th to June 14th, 1991 at the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Métiers. Two test problems were set up. The first one is the flow in a driven-lid parallelepipedic cavity at $Re = 3200$. The second problem is a flow around a prolate spheroid at incidence. These problems are challenging as fully transient solutions are expected to show up. The difficulties for meaningful calculations come from both space and temporal discretizations which have to be sufficiently accurate to resolve detailed structures like Taylor-Görtler-like vortices and the appropriate time development. Several research teams from academia and industry tackled the tests using different formulations (velocity-pressure, vorticity velocity), different numerical methods (finite differences, finite volumes, finite elements), various solution algorithms (splitting, coupled ...), various solvers (direct, iterative, semi-iterative) with preconditioners or other numerical speed-up procedures. The results show some scatter and achieve different levels of efficiency. The Workshop was attended by about 25 scientists and drove much interaction between the participants. The contributions in these proceedings are presented in alphabetical order according to the first author, first for the cavi ty problem and then for the prolate spheroid problem. No definite conclusions about benchmark solutions can be drawn.

Information Technology in Vietnam (and Southeast Asia): Discussion Cases Mathews Zanda Nkhoma, Narumon Sriratanaviriyakul, Hiep Pham , Vo Thi Trung Trinh , Huan Khoa Le, Hung Xuan Vo, 2014 Over the past decade, Vietnam has become a major player in the rapidly growing region of Southeast Asia. Anyone who has visited the country has sensed the extraordinary energy of its commercial activities. Few outsiders, however, have been granted access to the individual decision making processes that have driven this rapid development. With the publication of this book, that situation has changed. The ten discussion cases included in the collection examine important choices facing Vietnamese decision-makers in a broad range of contexts. Examples of these contexts include: a locally developed ERP considers how to compete with much larger international players, a coffee shop examines how IT might be harnessed to address employee theft, a burgeoning eCommerce site that leads in book sales wonders what it should sell next, an IT manager tries to decide whether or not to risk failure by accepting a promotion to a new level, a textile manufacturer seeks to use IT to more effectively manage production, a local investment company attempts to redesign its portal, and the list goes on--and even includes one entry from Vietnam's neighbor, Thailand. The ten case studies provided in this book are all open, authentic, discussion cases. What makes them open is that none of them have a right answer--although each has strong and weak responses to the situation described. They are authentic because each has been meticulously researched by its authors and, with the exception of some of the names (which have been disguised), they describe an actual situation faced by the key decision-maker. Most importantly, what makes them discussion cases is the fact that they are specifically optimized for use as a basis for discussion in the classroom, the teaching technique known as the case method.
