Hoodwinked Karen Ehman,Ruth Schwenk,2015-11-03 Moms have been hoodwinked—tricked into believing lies that keep them from not only enjoying motherhood, but forging friendships with other moms who might tackle the tasks of motherhood differently. Myths such as “Mothering is natural, easy, and instinctive” cause moms to feel like failures if they have questions or apprehensions in raising their kids. Operating from the premise that “The way I mother is the right (and only) way” puts up fences between moms instead of building bridges of encouragement between them. Lies such as “I am my child’s choices” tempt moms to mistakenly believe that if their child makes a wrong choice then they, in turn, must be a bad mom. In their encouraging “we’ve been there” style, Karen Ehman and Ruth Schwenk enable mothers to: Identify the ten myths of motherhood our current culture perpetuates Replace the lies with the truth of what God says in the Bible about mothering Acquire practical tools to help them form new and improved thought patterns and healthy behaviors Forge healthy, supportive relationships with other moms of all ages and stages Confidently embrace the calling of motherhood as they care for their families in their own unique way A six-session video Bible study for group or individual use is also available.

Hoodwinked Study Guide Karen Ehman,Ruth Schwenk,2015-11-03 According to Karen Ehman, popular author and speaker with Proverbs 31 Ministries, and Ruth Schwenk, it's time to stop the Mommy Wars. Today's wives and mothers have been hoodwinked; convinced that serving their family is a subservient and antiquated role. Because of culture, family, friends, or lack of biblical teaching, many moms miss how valuable and powerful their calling really is. Some have bought into the pressure to be Supermom. Others have believed the myth that they can do it all and do it perfectly. This six-session video-based study (DVD/digital video sold separately) will encourage and inspire women to embrace their roles as mothers wholeheartedly yet realistically, whether they work outside the home, have a home business, or are stay-at-home moms. Mothers will find a fresh new vision for an age-old calling as they tackle the challenges and embrace the blessings of motherhood. Sessions include: Build Bridges, Not Fences: When Others Mother Differently Mothering Matters: Seeing the Hard Years as the Heart Years At the Top of the Tightrope: When You Try to Do It All Pressing the Pause Button: Taking Your Schedule from Racing to Rest In Armor of Their Own: On Revealing the Picture God's Painting Raising Children on Your Knees: When Your Child Makes a Bad Choice Designed for use with the Hoodwinked Video Study (sold separately).

The Art of Peace Juliana Geran Pilon, 2017-07-05 Sun Tzu, author of 'The Art of War', believed that the acme of leadership consists in figuring out how to subdue the enemy with the least amount of fighting? a fact that America's Founders also understood, and practiced with astonishing success. For it to work, however, a people must possess both the ability and the willingness to use all available instruments of power in peace as much as in war. US foreign policy has increasingly neglected the instruments of civilian power and become overly dependent on lethal solutions to conflict. The steep rise in unconventional conflict has increased the need for diplomatic and other non-hard power tools of statecraft. The United States can no longer afford to sit on the proverbial three-legged national security stool (military, diplomacy, development), where one leg is a lot longer than either of the other two, almost forgetting altogether the fourth leg? information, especially strategic communication and public diplomacy. The United States isn't so much becoming militarized as DE civilianized. According to Sun Tzu, self-knowledge is as important as knowledge of one's enemy: if you know neither yourself nor the enemy, you will succumb in every battle. Alarming, the United States is deficient on both counts. And though we can stand to lose a few battles, the stakes of losing the war itself in this age of nuclear proliferation are too high to contemplate.
