

Hotels Australia

Christina Stead

Great Australian Historic Hotels Barry Stone, 2010 Barry Stone's fascinating insight into Australia's most noteworthy hotels takes us inside the buildings which have hosted and witnessed the development of our Great Southern Land.

Cool Hotels Martin Nicholas Kunz, 2009 Australia, New Zealand, the South Seas - breathtaking climes in the southern hemisphere. Each itself a place of dreams and longing and for many people, paradise at the other end of the world. Tropical rainforests and uninhabited deserts, endless beaches and the world's largest coral reef, remote cattle ranches, deserted gold mining towns and bustling metropolises - at the latest, sometime between four and five PM when at Magic Hour the sun bathes the countryside in a mystical, surreal light, one succumbs to Australia's fascination, this unbelievable land of contrasts and superlatives. With its unique flora and fauna the fabulous wilderness of New Zealand lures as well. A third of the country is under environmental protection and is like a wonderland in which time has stood still. The exorcism of picturesque lagoons and the luxuriant flowers of Polynesia transport everyone into a seemingly perpetual and cheerful serenity, the ease of simply being. The selection of exclusive hotels, lodges and resorts here are sublime complements to these extraordinary destinations. Style, comfort and technique combine historical cities, archaic wilderness or remote dreams of nature with the modernity of our times, create breathtaking vistas and at the same time maintain the singular romanticism of these refuges. Between the poles of exceptional, modern architecture or historical hulls of buildings and sportive interiors of straightforward elegance behind the façade, these hospitable establishments fulfill the expectations of their exacting guests. This book will help you make your dreams come true by introducing you to the most beautiful hotels of this charming region. ILLUSTRATIONS 200 colour photos *

Australia and New Zealand's Best Hotels and Resorts

Insight Guides Staff, 2006

Mr & Mrs Smith Hotel Collection Australia/New Zealand

Juliet Kinsman, Sophie Davies, 2013-11-01 The latest guidebook in the bestselling series from the world's boutique travel experts featuring 33 extra-special properties in Australia and New Zealand. Mr and Mrs Smith have combed white-sand beaches, climbed snow-capped mountains, camped in sun-drenched deserts and scoured cosmopolitan cities in pursuit of the sexiest boutique and luxury hotels down under.

The Little Hotel Christina Stead, 2016-10-03 'One of Australia's greatest novelists puts together...a crew as sad, funny and perverse as any ever gathered.' Time After the Second World War, bizarre characters from across the ruined continent have gathered at the 'fourth-rate' Hotel Swiss-Touring by Lake Geneva. Some are residents, while other guests have come for the season. In the claustrophobic atmosphere of the little hotel, their eccentricities and their desperation—their jealousies and vindictiveness—are all too apparent. First published in 1973, shortly before Christina Stead's return to Australia, The Little Hotel is a sharp, witty satire of changing lives in postwar Europe. Christina Stead was born in 1902 in Sydney. Stead's first books, The Salzburg Tales and Seven Poor Men of Sydney, were published in 1934 to positive reviews in England and the United States. Her fourth work, The Man Who Loved Children, has been hailed as a 'masterpiece' by Jonathan Franzen, among others. In total, Stead wrote almost twenty novels and short-story collections. Stead returned to Australia in 1969 after forty years abroad for a fellowship at the Australian National University. She resettled permanently in Australia in 1974 and was the first recipient of the Patrick White Award that year. Christina Stead died in Sydney in 1983, aged eighty. She is widely considered to be one of the most influential Australian authors of the twentieth century. 'This neat little volume will appeal to readers who enjoy historical fiction with a good dose of satire. Classic fiction from an award-winning Australian author.' BookMooch 'How to describe it? It's like a meteorite from Krypton landed on Ozlit's bindi-eye-riddled lawn, greenly glowing. Or perhaps a mosaic of imagined intimacies...Stead is a recording angel of the threadbare European middle class of the postwar years.' Saturday Paper 'In this highly confined setting, Stead creates a busy mini-Europe of petty and poignant crises, or perhaps a molehill of The Magic Mountain. This is an excellent place for the Stead novice to begin enjoying her artistry.' STARRED REVIEW, Kirkus Reviews
