🔍 You Look Like A Thing And I Love You Janelle Shane,2019-11-05 As heard on NPR’s Science Friday, discover the book recommended by Malcolm Gladwell, Susan Cain, Daniel Pink, and Adam Grant: an accessible, informative, and hilarious introduction to the weird and wonderful world of artificial intelligence (Ryan North). You Look Like A Thing And I Love You is one of the best pickup lines ever . . . according to an artificial intelligence trained by scientist Janelle Shane, creator of the popular blog AI Weirdness. She creates silly AIs that learn how to name paint colors, create the best recipes, and even flirt (badly) with humans—all to understand the technology that governs so much of our daily lives. We rely on AI every day for recommendations, for translations, and to put cat ears on our selfie videos. We also trust AI with matters of life and death, on the road and in our hospitals. But how smart is AI really... and how does it solve problems, understand humans, and even drive self-driving cars? Shane delivers the answers to every AI question you’ve ever asked, and some you definitely haven’t. Like, how can a computer design the perfect sandwich? What does robot-generated Harry Potter fan-fiction look like? And is the world’s best Halloween costume really Vampire Hog Bride? In this smart, often hilarious introduction to the most interesting science of our time, Shane shows how these programs learn, fail, and adapt—and how they reflect the best and worst of humanity. You Look Like A Thing And I Love You is the perfect book for anyone curious about what the robots in our lives are thinking. I can’t think of a better way to learn about artificial intelligence, and I’ve never had so much fun along the way. —Adam Grant, New York Times bestselling author of Originals

🔍 In Love You Fall, In Love You Rise Roopesh Bhole,2018-12-11 A heartbroken Aakash, on his way to his hometown, is reluctantly forced into a conversation by an irritating stranger Rudra—a man in his late forties—who happens to share the seat with him on the bus. The conversation begins with needless provocative verbal jabs by the stranger towards Aakash that quickly deteriorate into altercations, insults and an extreme dislike between the two. Their contrasting views on love and romance worsens the situation further. Aakash is more inclined towards the romantic side of love that deals with desire and passion, whereas Rudra believes in the more subtle side of love. As Aakash starts to narrate his own love story during this bitter-sweet conversation—marred by frequent arguments with Rudra, the two find themselves influenced by each other’s arguments and eventually on common grounds. Aakash, who initially hates the stranger for having totally contrasting views on love and romance, starts to like his logical reasoning and clear thought process. He finds an excellent mentor in him. Because of this conversation with Rudra, Aakash’s heart is kindled with hope—he thinks that he can still win back Vidya—his lost lady love despite all odds. But is that enough? Find out in this thought-provoking romance novel.
