Critical CALL – Proceedings of the 2015 EUROCALL Conference, Padova, Italy Francesca Helm,Linda Bradley,Marta Guarda,Sylvie Thouësny,2015-12-02 The theme of the conference this year was Critical CALL, drawing inspiration from the work carried out in the broader field of Critical Applied Linguistics. The term ‘critical’ has many possible interpretations, and as Pennycook (2001) outlines, has many concerns. It was from these that we decided on the conference theme, in particular the notion that we should question the assumptions that lie at the basis of our praxis, ideas that have become ‘naturalized’ and are not called into question. Over 200 presentations were delivered in 68 different sessions, both in English and Italian, on topics related specifically to the theme and also more general CALL topics. 94 of these were submitted as extended papers and appear in this volume of proceedings.

Left to My Own Devices: Learner Autonomy and Mobile-Assisted Language Learning Javier Díaz-Vera,2012-01-04 This book is the result of five years of intensive dedication to teaching innovation and curriculum development and offers a series of studies exploring how mobile technologies in particular, and mobile learning in general, may be used for second language teaching and learning in a wide variety of environments.

Barking Spiders and Other Such Stuff-- C. J. Heck,2000 Barking Spiders is a magnificent collection of poems that universally appeals to people from all walks of life. This delightful collection playfully examines the experiences of childhood and makes its readers feel like children again. This collection will not only bring a smile to one's face but it will also strengthen the bonds between parents and their children.

Future Learning in Primary Schools Ching Sing Chai,Cher Ping Lim,Chun Ming Tan,2015-10-12 This edited book tells the story of the multifaceted efforts devoted by a “future school” in Singapore–The Nan Chiau Primary School–in shaping future learning. It documents the various measures implemented by one primary school to improve student learning outcomes in a technology-rich teaching and learning environment. With the current interest in Singapore's "Masterplan for ICT (information and communication technology) in Education," and the increasing focus on teaching and learning design by leading education researchers and professionals, this well-timed book will appeal to policy makers, educators and researchers.

Assessing the Effectiveness of Virtual Technologies in Foreign and Second Language Instruction Kruk, Mariusz, 2018-12-21 Over the last few decades, the use of virtual technologies in education, including foreign/second language instruction, has developed into a substantial field of study. Through virtual technologies, language learners can develop metacognitive and metalinguistic skills, and they can practice the language by interacting with real/virtual users or virtual objects, a very important issue for language learners who have no or little contact with native or target language speakers outside the classroom. Assessing the Effectiveness of Virtual Technologies in Foreign and Second Language Instruction provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of virtual technologies and applications in engaging language learners both within and outside the classroom. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as game-based learning, online classrooms, and learning management systems, this publication is ideally designed for academicians, researchers, scholars, educators, graduate-level students, software developers, instructional designers, linguists, and education administrators seeking current research on how virtual technologies can be utilized and interpreted methodologically in virtual classroom settings.
