YouTube in Music Education Thomas E. Rudolph, James Frankel, 2009 YouTube in Music Education teaches instructors how to tap into the excitement of internet multimedia with students by creating, posting, and promoting videos on the world's most popular media service. Written by proven experts in the field of music education and technology, with a combined 60 years of classroom and instrumental experience, this book explains how to record and edit videos, add effects, and upload content. You'll learn everything from basic video production tools to advanced applications you can use in classroom and rehearsal settings. --Résumé de l'éditeur.

Videocracy Kevin Allocca, 2018-01-23 From YouTube's Head of Culture and Trends, a rousing and illuminating behind-the-scenes exploration of internet video's massive impact on our world. Whether your favorite YouTube video is a cat on a Roomba, "Gangnam Style," the "Bed Intruder" song, an ASAPscience explainer, Rebecca Black's "Friday," or the "Evolution of Dance," Kevin Allocca's Videocracy reveals how these beloved videos and famous trends--and many more--came to be and why they mean more than you might think. YouTube is the biggest pool of cultural data since the beginning of recorded communication, with four hundred hours of video uploaded every minute. (It would take you more than sixty-five years just to watch the vlogs, music videos, tutorials, and other content posted in a single day!) This activity reflects who we are, in all our glory and ignominy. As Allocca says, if aliens wanted to understand our planet, he'd give them Google. If they wanted to understand us, he'd give them YouTube. In Videocracy, Allocca lays bare what YouTube videos say about our society and how our actions online-- watching, sharing, commenting on, and remixing the people and clips that captivate us--are changing the face of entertainment, advertising, politics, and more. Via YouTube, we are fueling social movements, enforcing human rights, and redefining art--a lot more than you'd expect from a bunch of viral clips.

30 of the Weirdest YouTube Videos Jack Goldstein, 2017-06-01 YouTube is one website that can truly be considered a 'game-changer'. Before now, the only people you saw on your screen were the professionals, people paid to say their piece to camera. Then one day everything changed - ANYONE could record a video and share it with the rest of the world. As this model no longer relied on viewing figures, the variety of content available increased exponentially, with people all over the planet filming whatever it was that pleased them, rather than the advertisers. There are some amazing videos to see, the best of which could easily be considered the Citizen Kanes of the 21st century. Then there are those videos which you reach at the end of a click marathon, and even though you don't know why you're still watching, you can't bring yourself to look away. This collection presents you with thirty videos that sit firmly in both categories: the cream of the crop of the weirdest videos on YouTube. Be warned, though... once you have seen these clips, you can never un-see them. They will remain imprinted on your consciousness for evermore, fodder for your strangest dreams and your worst nightmares. Dare you watch them? A link is provided to each video within the list, so you'll need an online connection and a device capable of playing video to make best use of this book.

For anyone who wants to go straight to the very best the site offers, here's the ultimate guide to YouTube's 150 greatest clips. Each entry includes a QR code enabling the reader to watch the video instantly. The videos-some world famous, others less well known-include: Charlie Bit My Finger, Fenton the Dog in Richmond Park, Psy's Gangnam Style, Dramatic Chipmunk, Sneezing Pandas, Spiders on Drugs, Blindfolded Boomeranger, and many more. This is the perfect gift for YouTube fanatics or those new to the site.
