I worship Ron Woods, Jr., 2016-12-06 We should never arrive at the place where it seems as if we have arrived in God. We should always be in a place of thirsting for God. Even when we feel we are filled with his presence, we should still crave more of him. The newness of God should always rest upon us, and this newness of God is found in worship. As worshippers or worship leaders, we must understand that worship is offered through a sanctified lifestyle, a lifestyle that puts the kingdom's agenda first, a lifestyle that is concerned with the king's plan and itinerary
