Penguins Can't Fly Jason Kotecki,2015-06-23 Life is supposed to be fun. We knew this instinctively as kids, but somehow forgot on the way to adulthood. We got busy and overwhelmed, started valuing things that don't matter, and learned to follow the rules that don't even exist: hate Mondays only celebrate when the calendar gives you permission don't make a mess don't play hooky hide your weirdness hide your wrinkles care what other people think Following these so-called rules is a terrific way to stress you out, sap your energy, and ensure a boring life. But there's a better way. In his enlightening book, author and artist Jason Kotecki uncovers some of the most useless rules so you can shift perspective and start seeing the world with wonder once again. It's time to stop living by someone else's rules. Your life is a story, and a short one at that. Make it a good one.

Jelly Bean Sandwiches O.H. Grace, 2014-03-05 Eight-year-old Billy Randall knows something unusual is going on in the kitchen in the wee hours of the morning. He slips into the scene with an unknown little man who has gone through the dog door and started cooking Billy's breakfast. This innocent but bizarre event leads to more secret rendezvous, each a bit bolder, climaxing with his astonished parents, Luke and Janice, discovering the activities. An extended family, including a long lost niece, Kikki, and the next door neighbors, the Grovers, find their lives filled with supernatural visitors and dangers, betrayal, and frustration. Only the grandparents know what action is necessary to dislodge the activities. Deeply embedded in the story is the occult, with Janice Randall, dancing around the seemingly innocent interest in her horoscope. Her resentment toward God because of unanswered prayers for her dying mother has led her to find answers in different and dangerous places.

Jelly Bean Summer Joyce Magnin, 2017-05-02 At breakfast, I sit at the table and work on three things: 1. A bowl of Rice Krispies with sliced banana on top 2. My courage 3. How exactly to tell Mom I'm moving to the roof Joyce is desperate to get out of the room she shares with her older sister. All she wants is some peace and quiet, not the kind that fills the space left by her missing brother and tastes like butterscotch gone sour, the kind where you can breathe deep and see the stars. So she moves to the roof. Up there it's nothing but blue sky. Blue sky and....another roof dweller? Joyce soon discovers she's not the only one who's been driven to rooftop living. With the help of a pair of binoculars, a sketch pad, and a pen, Joyce makes an unexpected friend and sets in motion a summer she'll never forget.

JellyBean Eva Patton, 2020-09-25 Long ago, Dogmama told me and my littermates there comes a time when every puppy must have his very own family. Dogs are loved by people for many reasons, and it is one of the most wonderful things in the entire world when a human pack or family comes to our kennel to find some of its happiness. A puppy is very lucky to be matched with his own person or family who will love him forever. With these thoughts, I prayed to Saint Bernard for my very own family. Eventually, they came, and in the fourteen-plus years I shared with them, my life had both wonderful and miserable times. The hardest thing was learning right and wrong. Fortunately, Angelo Wingsandhalo, a tiny Wire Fox Terrier with wings and a halo, came to me when I needed the most help. What he said made sense. However, his archrival, Lucifer Hornsandtail, said things that got me into mischief but were far too good to ignore. If I could remember, did I always do what was good as Angelo taught me, or did I usually prefer to have a mischievous time as Lucifer encouraged me to do? I am JellyBean. This is my story. Not a word of it is untrue.
