ECMT Round Tables Transport and Spatial Distribution of Activities Report of the Eighty-Fifth Round Table on Transport Economics Held in Paris on 5-6 April 1990 European Conference of Ministers of Transport,1992-01-01 This report seeks to determine what influence high-speed rail lines will have on the regions served, particularly in the light of experience with the TGV Sud-Est in France.

Transport Policy in the EEC John Whitelegg,2021-05-11 Originally published in 1988, this book reviews a selection of national policies and sets them against EU (the former EEC) action or inaction to sharpen the readers' understanding of both national and supranational policies. The book is innovative in its method of studying the subject and its focus on multi-dimensional transport issues including the impact of the Common Transport Policy. The analysis is seen throughout from the consumers' perspective. The book will be of interest to those concerned with European transport studies, especially geographers, economists and planners.

Cities and Regions in the New Learning Economy OECD,2001-01-18 Is there a new learning economy? This publication, which views the debate from the perspective of a regional learning economy, clearly answers in the affirmative.

The Economics of Recreation, Leisure and Tourism John Tribe,2006-08-11 Now in its third successful edition, The Economics of Leisure and Tourism has been fully revised and updated to cover all the latest issues and changes, and more. Essentially a real world text in applied economics, it explains the necessary economic theories from first principles and applies them to a range of leisure and tourism problems and issues at the consumer, business, national and international level. Key themes discussed are: * How is the provision of leisure and tourism determined and could it be provided in a different way? * What are the key opportunities and threats facing leisure and tourism & environmental impacts? * How can economics be used to manage leisure and tourism? International in its outlook, this text uses examples from Brazil, China, India and Japan, as well as Europe, North America and Australia. With an accompanying website with links and Powerpoint resources for lecturers, this new edition provides: * New chapters on regeneration, tourism as an economic development strategy, globalisation and political economy of tourism. * Introduction of dependency theory and development economics theories * Liberal use of press cuttings, journal articles and international case studies * User friendly learning features such as: visual mapping of chapter contents, chapter objectives, summaries of key points' short answer questions.
