We Saved the Fox Joe Myers,2004 In order to live a full and fruitful life, and to obtain the prosperity that God has promised we must achieve all three kinds of wealth. For one without the other except for spiritual wealth will result in one's undoing. Many examples of the lack of spiritual wealth and understanding abound among us. Consider the many famous persons such as professional athletes, movie stars, entertainers, and yes even prime time preachers who have lost their monetary wealth and whose careers have ended in embarrassment and humiliation. No doubt you have your own examples that can be brought to mind. These examples demonstrate that the absence of spiritual wealth and knowledge will always lead to poverty. The Lord has promised prosperity to us and we simply have to embrace all that He offers to us and understand the conditions for obtaining what has been promised. In Chapter One we will review scriptures from the Bible that tells of God's promise of prosperity. Biblical Proof of God's Promise of Prosperity There are numerous references throughout the Bible where God has promised prosperity to us. The chapters and verses provided in this section of God's will for our prosperity are not exhaustive by any means. There are many references to God's promise to us. Other sections will cite additional chapters and verses in later discussions. However, let's see what God has promised to us. Let the Lord be magnified which has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant (Psalms 35:27). It is the gift of God for man to have riches and wealth, to be able to eat and take his portion and rejoice in his Labor (Ecclesiastes 5:19). The Lord will open up his good treasure to you, and you Will lend to many nations and not borrow. He will make you the head and not the tail, above only and not beneath, prospering wherever you go (Joshua 1:7b). For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, that you through his poverty might be rich (II Corinthians 8:9) God has spoken, you are called of God, He has brought you and He will make your way prosperous (Isaiah 48:15) Finally, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers (III John 1:2}. These passages from the Bible alone should be enough for anyone to get the message that God intends prosperity for us. Yet, many overlook these passages and continue to struggle in vain for what God has already promised to us. We simply have to be obedient to His word and practice faith in God's promise to us. We must humble ourselves as children before Him and let Him direct our path. Instead of allowing God to direct our lives we choose to follow our own will and limited understanding just as rebellious children often do only to become frustrated in our efforts.

The Leeds Pals Leeds Pals Volunteer Researchers,2018-11-19 Many men and boys from Leeds enlisted as volunteer soldiers at the outset of the First World War as part of the national phenomenon of 'Pals' that sprang up across the Britain. The Leeds Pals, who made up the 15th Battalion (Prince of Wales's Own) West Yorkshire Regiment (the City Battalion), trained in rugged Colsterdale and at Ripon, guarded the Suez Canal and were changed irrevocably by their experiences during the Battle of the Somme in 1916 when, on the first day, the battalion was devastated. Who were these men? How did their experiences resonate in Leeds? What impact did they have on the city itself? Using unpublished archive sources and original research, this book adds to our knowledge of the Leeds Pals through case studies and historical overview, revealing how the city treated this one battalion at the expense of others.
