The Shiny Carpet Christian McAvoy,2010-09 This book is based on a childhood between the ages of 6 and 13. The story tells the tale of a child's struggles with abuse, poverty and scrapes with the authorities. At times humourous and at times harrowing, it is purely a story of how you can achieve what you want in life even when the cards are stacked against you.

The Sharpe End of Things Deborah Cassidy,Charles Hyland,2010 The Sharpe End of Things is a 'must read' for anyone who has ever attempted to research their family history or find missing relatives. In 2006, genealogist Deborah Cassidy begins the fascinating journey in search of her maternal grandmother Ada and opens a veritable Pandora's Box. The powerfully emotional story of siblings separated at birth and reunited decades later is portrayed in this unforgettable true account, spanning seventy years and sixteen-thousand miles. Born in England and Wales during the turbulence of WW2, Chas and Christine Hyland are deserted by their mother Ada shortly after birth and raised separately, neither aware of the other's existence. Chas' colourfully Catholic upbringing amidst the bombed-out ruins of Liverpool is beautifully depicted with a typical Liverpoolian wit. The path of life is kind to Chas, blessing him with a happy marriage and eventual retirement in Cyprus. Life deals Christine a different hand. Poignantly recounted through the eyes of her daughter Deborah, Christine's childhood in Llandudno, North Wales is filled with loneliness and rejection. Her marriage to a hopeless alcoholic and migration to Australia only increases the emptiness within her. Through Deborah's dogged determination, Chas and Christine are united for the first time, almost seventy years after their births. But the story takes an unexpected turn; a genuine case of be careful what you wish for when the jigsaw pieces of Ada's life are gradually linked together, revealing a mesmerising and moving story that will touch the soul and tug at the heartstrings of every reader.

Walking with the Vain Cattle Amal A. Islim,2011-05-13 Upon the secrets of the Caribbean Sea, Amal Islim makes a wish, asking the wish master for happiness and peace. A whisper in her soul makes her understand that she must take the journey towards her higher self. Standing in that crossroads, she meets the Doorkeeper that is separating heaven from the mundane. As the doorkeeper holds that doors key, He challenges her to go into her darkness and bring it to light. She takes the challenge, and plunges into the unknown to reach the cruel test of paradise. Yearning for her Golden fields, she realizes, that first, she must face the soul of death. In her own womb, she nests, thinking that she is in her Coffin. Surrendering now to her fate, finally, hears that stillness sound. In peace, she awakens and in humble grace, knowing now, that no true victory is without a noble destination. She finally understands that in her perfect faith, and in believing in the incredible, she was able to reach what is called the impossible. As she breathes life, and lets the blood flood into her face, that sinner becomes a saint and walks through the gate of the enchanted new Beginning. Proving that when a man is willing and eager, God joins in.

Duck Takes Charge Wilbert V. Awdry,1993 With the help of Sir Topham Hatt, Duck and Percy find a way to stop the other engines in the train yard from ordering them around.

Thomas Gets Bumped Rev. W. Awdry,David Mitton,Terry Permane,1994-02-01 When unavoidable accidents cause Thomas the Tank Engine to call upon the help of Bertie the Bus, Thomas worries that he will lose all his passengers.

New Literacies in Action William Kist,2005 This book examines the work of pioneers: teachers who have transformed their classrooms in an effort to broaden the literacy of their students, describing some of the most innovative examples of teaching and learning.

Neoconservatism Douglas Murray,Associate Professor of English Douglas Murray,2010-06-29

Neo conservatism: Why We Need It is a defense of the most controversial political philosophy of our era. Douglas Murray takes a fresh look at the movement that replaced Great-Society liberalism, helped Ronald Reagan bring down the Wall, and provided the intellectual rationale for the Bush administration's War on Terror. While others are blaming it for foreign policy failures and, more extremely, attacking it as a "Jewish cabal," Murray argues that the West needs Neo conservatism more than ever. In addition to explaining what Neo conservatism is and where it came from, he argues that this American-born response to the failed policies of the 1960s is the best approach to foreign affairs not only for the United States but also for Britain and the West as well.

Seeing and Believing Ellen Krueger, Mary T. Christel, 2001 Provides ideas for teaching media literacy in English classes, showing how to analyze films and television and develop an elective film course.

Reading in the Dark John Golden, 2001 To believe that students are not using reading and analytical skills when they watch or read a movie is to miss the power and complexities of film--and of students' viewing processes. This book encourages teachers to harness students' interest in film to help them engage critically with a range of media, including visual and printed texts. Toward this end, the book provides a practical guide to enabling teachers to feel comfortable and confident about using film in new and different ways. It addresses film as a compelling medium in itself by using examples from more than 30 films to explain key terminology and cinematic effects. And it then makes direct links between film and literary study by addressing reading strategies (e.g., predicting, responding, questioning, and storyboarding) and key aspects of textual analysis (e.g., characterization, point of view, irony, and connections between directorial and authorial choices). The book concludes with classroom-tested suggestions for putting it all together in teaching units on 11 films ranging from Elizabeth to Crooklyn to Smoke Signals. Some other films examined are E.T., Life Is Beautiful, Rocky, The Lion King, and Frankenstein. (Contains 35 figures. Appendixes include a glossary of film terms, blank activity charts, and an annotated resource list.) (NKA)

A State Beyond The Pale Robin Shepherd, 2009-09-10 'A State Beyond the Pale' looks at the roots of anti-Israeli sentiment in Europe. The Jewish state of Israel has now acquired the status of a pariah across much of the West and especially in Europe. For many, it has become the contemporary equivalent of apartheid South Africa - a system and a state with no legitimate place in the modern world. Israel's conflict with the Palestinians and the wider Muslim world also takes place across one of the great fault lines in global politics. No-one with a serious interest in international affairs can ignore it. But why have so many people and institutions of influence in Europe chosen to place themselves on the side of that fault line which opposes Israel? Where exactly does all this hostility come from? Can this really be put down to a revival of anti-Semitism on a continent which gave the world the Holocaust? 'A State Beyond the Pale: Europe's Problem with Israel' looks at the roots of anti-Israeli sentiment in Europe and shows why there is now a risk that it may even spread to the United States. In the author's view, the Israel-Palestine conflict can be seen as a test case for the West's ability to stand up for the values it claims as its own. In Europe, important institutions and individuals are now failing that test. This book explains why.

Art in Motion, Revised Edition Maureen Furniss, 2008-02-05 This text presents an examination of the aesthetics of animation. It provides an overview of the relationship between animation studies and media studies, then focuses on issues concerning flat and dimensional, and limited and full animation. It then looks at specific topics such as gender issues and adaption.

The British Moment Henry Jackson Society, 2006 The British Moment is the foreign policy manifesto of a group of young academics based at Cambridge University, the Henry Jackson Society. This book calls for a different way of thinking about British foreign policy in the 21st century and argues that the time is ripe for Britain to play a progressive role in promoting democracy and human rights.

Neoliberal Scotland Neil Davidson, Patricia McCafferty, David Miller, 2010 Each of the book's contributors is engaged in critical academic research across a broad spectrum in Scotland. Although they are specialists in their chosen fields, they share a concern to problematise the post-devolution, 'new' Scotland by discussing it fully and effectively in the neo-liberal context of the 21st century. In addition, all of the authors are activists in the anti-capitalist, environmental, socialist and anti-war movements and are therefore engaged in the processes outlined in ...
