Reading and Writing the Electronic Book Catherine C. Marshall,2010 Developments over the last 20 years have fueled considerable speculation about the future of the book and of reading itself. This book begins with a gloss over the history of electronic books, including the social and technical forces that have shaped their development. The focus then shifts to reading and how we interact with what we read: basic issues such as legibility, annotation, and navigation are examined as aspects of reading that eBooks inherit from their print legacy. Because reading is fundamentally communicative, I also take a closer look at the sociality of reading: how we read in a group and how we share what we read. Studies of reading and eBook use are integrated throughout the book, but Chapter 5 goes meta to explore how a researcher might go about designing his or her own reading-related studies. No book about eBooks is complete without an explicit discussion of content preparation, i.e., how the electronic book is written. Hence, Chapter 6 delves into the underlying representation of eBooks and efforts to create and apply markup standards to them. This chapter also examines how print genres have made the journey to digital and how some emerging digital genres might be realized as eBooks. Finally, Chapter 7 discusses some beyond-the-book functionality: how can eBook platforms be transformed into portable personal libraries? In the end, my hope is that by the time the reader reaches the end of this book, he or she will feel equipped to perform the next set of studies, write the next set of articles, invent new eBook functionality, or simply engage in a heated argument with the stranger in seat 17C about the future of reading. How to Make Money Online Larry Elliott Bussey,2010-08-16 HOW TO MAKE MONEY ONLINE EBOOK CREATION FOR ENTREPRENEURS DO IT LIKE THE BIG DOGS!! When you hire for a writer for your ebook, what you are doing is enlisting the services of a ghostwriter. A ghostwriter is a writer who publishes under someone else's name, with the consent of both parties. (It's legal and writers are available to provide the service). The straightest route to ebook profits is in the nonfiction ebook market. Fiction is making a story; journalism is finding one. That's the big difference. When I am writing a book, I am usually dealing with events or ideas that have already arranged themselves in memory. With nonfiction, you need to find your prospective before time has arranged it. The trick is to write about something as if you've been thinking about it for 10 years. Larry Bussey resides in Las Vegas, Nevada. He's an expert on Internet Marketing and Ghostwriting. He has successfully pinned numerous books as a ghostwriter. Larry Bussey makes it his business to be aware of the latest developments in his field as a Pro Internet Marketer / Blogger / Social Media Marketer, Business Expert, Social Marketing Trainer and Consultant.
