The Holy Neeshant Srivastava,2024-04-22 This is a collection of seven short stories containing memories of my school days in my alma mater, Don Bosco Academy, which is among the best schools in Patna. After having reached an age of maturity, we often look backwards and remember our much-forgotten childhood, and those laborious days of school. We remember people, things that were simple and had a deep impact on our lives. A tear or two is quite enough to re-establish a lost friendship and the days of glory. Those lips are sealed and will not utter a word and very soon they will disappear forever. While we are still alive, we must dig into our minds and catch all those memories that have been frozen and lie under deep black clouds. Only then can we bring happiness into our lives and the lives of our near and dear ones that have been silenced too, by the tricks of time. Dig deep into your mind if you can, someone has you on their mind.

Pedro Calderón de la Barca and the World Theatre in Early Modern Europe Rasmus Vangshardt,2023-11-20 Rasmus Vangshardt offers an original interpretation of one of the most famous images of literary history, the theatrum mundi. By applying methods of comparative literature, hispanic studies, and theology, he reconsiders the world theatre’s historical peak in early modern Europe in general and the Spanish Golden Age in particular. The author presents a new close reading of Pedro Calderón’s El gran teatro del mundo (c. 1633–36) and outlines the historical and systematic framework for a theatrum mundi of celebration. This concept entails using art to justify human existence in the face of changing conceptions of the cosmos: an early modern aesthetic theodicy and a justification of the world in that liminal space between drama and ritual. By discussing historiographical theories of early modern Europe, especially those of Hans Blumenberg and Bruno Latour, and through conversations with Shakespearean drama and Spanish Golden Age classics, Vangshardt also argues that the theatrum mundi of celebration questions traditional assumptions of great divides between the Middle Ages and Early Modernity and challenges theories of a European-wide early modern sense of crisis.
