Travel Tips Martar Media,2020-01-24 How to Get a Good Travel Deal on Hotel, Car, and AirfareWhen looking for the best travel deal possible, don't risk it. Never cross your fingers and hope for the best - research your options and get the vacation you deserve when you're spending your hard-earned money.The more time you book in advance, the more time you have to keep a close eye on hotel prices and airfare and make exchanges wherever applicable. If you've been searching for a long time now, and you see something that looks like a good deal - it probably is!Try to look online for various travel deals. Booking online is probably one of the most cost-cutting and valuable methods of making reservations somewhere. Simply checking websites that claim the lowest prices isn't enough anymore. Compare prices everywhere in order to get a good travel deal.If you're a generally a spur-of-the-moment type person, always be sure to check for last minute deals on flights that still have empty seats a few hours before boarding. This could cut costs by a lot since airlines want your business.When searching for a good travel deal, make sure to look and see if the price of the ticket includes taxes and all applicable fees. If not, you may be tacking an additional hundred dollars onto your price.When searching for hotels, similar to airfare, try not to settle for the first rate you're offered. Ask about military, corporate, senior, or any other special rates you might qualify for. Selecting a hotel just outside the major city you're visiting tends to be cheaper as well - which allows for a better travel deal. Ask for an upgrade to a suite because many companies will do it for free if the room is empty.Getting a great travel deal on a rental car is easy if you ask for upgrades. Generally, it's less expensive to rent using the online service rather than walking in and renting a full week is often cheaper than a daily rate. Don't forget to add taxes to whatever rate you're being offered.Check with your auto-insurance agent to make sure that you're covered in case an accident occurs while in a rental car. Before leaving the lot, be sure to make note of any dents, scratches, stains, or other damages in order to avoid taking the bill for someone else's carelessness.Another good travel deal tip is to try walking from your hotel or hostel to a local restaurant. This will eliminate cab costs and will make you feel better gaining some fresh air and being able to take in all of the local scenery.Can a Travel Package Help Me Save Money?When looking to get away from the commotion of everyday life for a long period of time, or even just a weekend, be sure to find a value-packed travel package. Travel packages are almost always available for crowd attracting destinations such as Orlando, Las Vegas, Hawaii, and even cruise lines.As far as pricing goes, the cost of the travel package is constructed on various things. Something as small as time of the year can be a deciding factor in the price range of your travel package. If you use a travel agent, it may depend on the capability of the agent to get discounts for you. During slow season, hotels could offer discounts up to 50% depending on the days you're staying. Agents also promise a certain number of seats to be filled on specific flights, making them achieve a smaller cost per passenger. Choose wisely because there are countless amounts and types of vacation travel packages. Some travel packages take care of every little detail - including meals and even going as far as tips. Travel packages can be simple or complex, depending on your preference. Most travel packages include the 3 quintessential aspects of a getaway: airfare to and from your destination, hotels during your stay, and transportation while there. Various travel packages offer shuttle bus transportation to and from the hotel and/or various amusement destinations, while others only offer a discount on a rental.

Airport Marketing Nigel Halpern,Anne Graham,2013-06-19 In recent years, the airport sector has moved from an industry characterised by public sector ownership and national requirements, into a new era of airport management which is beginning to be dominated by the private sector and international players. Airports are now complex enterprises that require a wide range of business competencies and skills to meet the needs of their users, just as with any other industry. Moreover, deregulation of air transport markets has made the airport sector much more competitive and given airports greater incentives to develop innovative, proactive and aggressive marketing strategies so that they can reap the benefits from these developments. New types of airline business model, such as low cost carriers, have emerged through deregulation, which in many cases require a completely different approach to be adopted by airport marketers and have encouraged a further deviation from past practice. The travelling public is also becoming more experienced and is generally placing greater demands on the airport operator to deliver a quality product at a time when more stringent controls, especially as regards security, have been introduced. This accessible book fills an important need for an up-to-date, comprehensive and in-depth textbook that introduces students and practitioners to the principles and practice of airport marketing as well as the major changes and future marketing challenges facing the airport sector. It applies principles of marketing within the airport industry, and examines airport marketing and its environment, how to define and measure the market for airport services, airport marketing planning, and individual elements of the airport marketing mix (product, price, promotion and distribution). The book integrates key elements of marketing theory with airport marketing in practice. Each chapter contains extensive industry examples for different types of airports from around the world to build on the theoretical base of the subject and show real-life applications. The dynamic nature of the airport industry requires students and practitioners to have a thorough, up-to-date and contemporary appreciation of airport marketing issues and challenges. This comprehensive, accessible textbook written by two airport marketing experts satisfies this need and is essential reading for air transport students and future managers.

New York Times bestselling author of How to Travel the World on $50 a Day, Matthew Kepnes knows what it feels like to get the travel bug. After meeting some travelers on a trip to Thailand in 2005, he realized that living life meant more than simply meeting society's traditional milestones, such as buying a car, paying a mortgage, and moving up the career ladder. Inspired by them, he set off for a year-long trip around the world before he started his career. He finally came home after ten years. Over 500,000 miles, 1,000 hostels, and 90 different countries later, Matt has compiled his favorite stories, experiences, and insights into this travel manifesto. Filled with the color and perspective that only hindsight and self-reflection can offer, these stories get to the real questions at the heart of wanderlust. Travel questions that transcend the basic how-to, and plumb the depths of what drives us to travel — and what extended travel around the world can teach us about life, ourselves, and our place in the world. Ten Years a Nomad is for travel junkies, the travel-curious, and anyone interested in what you can learn about the world when you don't have a cable bill for a decade or spend a month not wearing shoes living on the beach in Thailand.
