Just like clockwork, garage doors open and out come the weekend warriors with their weapons at the ready. Like a scene straight out of The Stepford Wives with roles reversed, all the mowers are started at the same time and the trusty steeds fall in line and obey their masters as they methodically crisscross the lawn in precise geometric patterns. Okay, okay so we exaggerated a little. But you must admit, it's a pretty familiar scenario, right? The only thing missing is all of the white knights chatting over the hedge about which mower is the best and how to have the greenest lawn on the block! Well listen up trusty White Knight. You CAN win the battle of Bermuda. . . Bermuda grass that is. If you are serious about winning the weekend trophy of having the best-looking lawn on the block, pay attention. Au contraire' learn the differences. -Fertilizing - Dry or wet? That is the question! -Thatching - No, we don't mean a quaint cottage in the U.K. -Types of Grasses - Do you know what sprigs, stolons and plugs are? -Seeding a New Lawn - Did you know that not all grasses are created equal? -Sod Lawns - Better than seeding? Not necessarily. Discover why inside. -Chemicals - Should you use chemicals for greening your lawn? If so which ones and are they good for the environment? -Insects - What are the different kinds of insects that attack lawns? Are the same pests in all planting zones? How to get rid of them. -Controlling Weeds - What kinds of weeds grow in lawns and how to deal with them. The Edible Front Yard Ivette Soler, 2011-02-23 “Front lawns, beware: The Germinatrix has you in her crosshairs! Ivette Soler is a welcome voice urging us to mow less and grow some food—in her uniquely fun, infectious yet informative way.” —Garden Rant People everywhere are turning patches of soil into bountiful vegetable gardens, and each spring a new crop of beginners pick up trowels and plant seeds for the first time. They're planting tomatoes in raised beds, runner beans in small plots, and strawberries in containers. But there is one place that has, until now, been woefully neglected—the front yard. And there's good reason. The typical veggie garden, with its raised beds and plots, is not the most attractive type of garden, and favorite edible plants like tomatoes and cucumbers have a tendency to look a scraggly, even in their prime. But The Edible Front Yard isn't about the typical veggie garden, and author Ivette Soler is passionate about putting edibles up front and creating edible gardens with curb appeal. Soler offers step-by-step instructions for converting all or part of a lawn into an edible paradise; specific guidelines for selecting and planting the most attractive edible plants; and design advice and plans for the best placement and for combining edibles with ornamentals in pleasing ways. Inspiring and accessible, The Edible Front Yard is a one-stop resource for a front-and-center edible garden that is both beautiful and bountiful year-round.

"These pages will feel like a lifeline for the anxious, overwhelmed, and burned out."—Jennie Allen, New York Times bestselling author of Get Out of Your Head If you've ever felt overwhelmed by panic, fear, worry, or anxiety, you're not alone. A part of the human experience often involves anxious feelings that paralyze us, keep us up at night, rob us of our ability to live in the moment, and pretty much suck the life out of us. But this doesn't have to be the case. You can stop freaking out. Sound too good to be true? It is true. In fact, it's a promise from God himself. At least 366 times, the Bible commands us to not fear. God loves us and doesn't want us to be ruled by anxiety. Not surprisingly, most people don't understand what the Bible actually teaches about anxiety, fear, and worry. Consider this book a practical resource to help you connect the dots between your anxiety and what God has to say about defeating it. As you are about to discover, you really can stop freaking out.
