God Has a Plan for You! Robert D Prescott-Ezickson, 2001 I read the Bible, but I don't get anything out of it. I want to know what the Bible says, but I need a guide to understand it. I just don't have time to read the whole Bible, but I want to know its message for me. If any of these statements describe you (or your parishioners), then this is the book for you. Arranged in 52 weekly sessions, God Has A Plan For You! provides an easy-to-follow structure for a one-year plan to read through the entire Bible. It offers a broad overview of the message of scripture, as well as practical applications to daily Christian living. Each chapter includes a clear explanation of the biblical text and its meaning for today. And study questions and thought-provokers help readers to deepen their understanding. The unique format makes this an excellent resource for a preaching series, Sunday school lessons, or a group Bible study, as well as for personal Bible reading. Wherever you are in your spiritual journey, this book can help you reach your spiritual goals by fostering a clear understanding of the Bible's message and God's plan for you. God Has A Plan For You! celebrates the message of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation.... This approach helps make all of the written word -- not just the more familiar favorite passages -- the basis of a life lived in obedience to God and his kingdom agenda for the church. Dr. Prescott-Ezickson wisely avoids secondary issues and dubious interpretations, consistently focusing on the central message of salvation as it is found from the beginning to the end of the scriptures. Readers, whether from the laity or the clergy, will come away from this volume with a new appreciation of the fundamental message of the Bible. Robert T. Coote, Associate Director Overseas Ministries Study Center New Haven, Connecticut Robert D. Prescott-Ezickson is senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Meriden, Connecticut, and an adjunct professor of religion at Central Connecticut State University. A graduate of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, Prescott-Ezickson has previously pastored churches in Indiana, New Jersey, and Connecticut. He has served as president of the Minister's Council for American Baptist Churches of Connecticut, moderator of the South Central Association, and president of the Meriden Clergy Association.

A Bible Year Amos Russel Wells, 2015-08 The digital copies of this book are available for free at First Fruits website. place.asburyseminary.edu/firstfruits PREFACE This little book pretends to be nothing more than a primer of Bible-reading. Actual experiment has proved the need and usefulness of such directions as are here given. For a year, week by week, these studies were printed in the columns of The Christian Endeavor World. A call was made for the names of all that would undertake to read the Bible through in accordance with this plan during the year; and without advertisement or urging, more than nine thousand sent in their names. Hundreds and even thousands of these expressed themselves as thankful for the plan, and said that, though they had often proposed reading the Bible through and had frequently set out upon the task, this plan had furnished just the stimulus and aid needed to spur them to its completion. These Bible-readers were in all parts of America and in many foreign lands. Indeed, the course was translated into several foreign tongues. Pastors induced their churches to take up the work. Families read the Bible thus together. Sunday - school teachers used the plan as an incentive to their classes for regular home Bible-reading and study. Some that had never read the Bible for three days in succession, completed the entire course. Some in their eagerness got far ahead, and read the Bible through twice in the year. The plan was found useful in prisons. Ministers of the gospel testified that even to them it had opened up fresh gospel truth. The Bible has become a new book to me, was a frequent message. Though it was understood that the themes for daily meditation suggested by the daily Scripture reading, as well as the hints for further study, were entirely optional, an unexpectedly large number wrote me that they were adding both to their Bible-reading, and found in both great profit. These suggestions for further study, it will be understood, do not pretend to anything like completeness or scholarship. They are part of a primer, and merely point out a great variety of simple researches that will throw light upon the Bible, and bind its portions more closely together in the mind. Amos R. Wells Boston, November, 1899.

One Year Bible Reading Plan and Journal Sterling Edwards, 2020-11-08 The purpose of this ONE YEAR READING PLAN and is to provide a 365 day journal that serves a resource to help prioritize spending consistent time in God's Word. Busy schedules and daily routines vie for our time and attention. The urgency of schedules often interfere with various goals and priorities, including spending time daily reading the Bible and praying. There are many devotionals written to provide insight into what God reveals through His Word. These devotionals give exceptional insight from authors who know the Bible and know how to apply the Scriptures. Yet, as followers of Jesus, we can also grow in our ability to learn to read, reflect, and prioritize spending our own time study God's Word. This journal provides a selected passage to read and a pre-lined space to write what God is revealing to you as an individual. The hope is that as we study God's Word, we will become more and more familiar with how to read God's Word, interpret God's Word, and pray God's Word. The goal of this resource is to make spending time in God's Word and praying a priority each day of the year. The selected reading plan allows the reader to read through the entire Old Testament and New Testament, by reading six days each week. Following the daily passages, there is a space to summarize the passage, apply the passage, and pray for that day. On the seventh day, there is a day for reflection. Summarization The first section is designed to provide space to summarize the Bible passage that was read. There are lines provided to write summary statements that can be used to restate or breakdown the chapters that were read. This allows for the reader to carefully determine and discern the message that was read. Application In addition to discerning the meaning of the passage, there is a space provided to write down how the passage applies to our lives. This allows the reader to understand and the implications and practicality of what has been read. Prayer Finally, there is space provided for the reader to write down a daily prayer. This prayer can come out of what has been read, the Bible passage, as well as a prayer for personal matters, decisions, situations, and people. Rest, Reflect, and Remember Each week, there will be a listing where the focus of that day will be to pause and reflect on what God has been revealing. This is also an opportunity to focus on what God has provided and the promises that He continues to keep. A New Year There are many resolutions, promises, and new habits that we can begin in the new year. But, what if our true desire for this new year was to hear, know, and understand God better at the end of the year than we do right now? My prayer is that your commitment to spending time daily in God's Word will not only be helpful, but that it would be absolutely life-changing. I am praying that each of us will look forward to spending time in God's Word throughout the next year. - Sterling Edwards

Foundations Robby Gallaty, 2015-11 The Bible, in and of itself, is a miracle. Think about it -- over centuries of time, God supernaturally moved upon a number of men's hearts, resulting in them writing down the exact words of God. God then led His people to recognize these divine writings and to distinguish them from everything else that has ever been written. Then God's people brought these 66 books together. The preservation and survival of the Bible is as miraculous as its writing. Then God gave men technological knowledge to copy and transmit the Bible so that all people could have it. All of this took place because God has something to say to you. With Foundations, you can read through all 66 of the miraculous books of the Bible in one year, while still having the flexibility of reading 5 days per week. Along with supplementary devotional content each day, you can experience the miracle of reading and responding to the entirety of God's Word. By using the H.E.A.R. journaling method, you will be guided through Highlighting, Explaining, Applying, and Responding to passages, allowing for practical application throughout the year-long plan.
