The Comprehensive Guide to Successful Conferences and Meetings Leonard Nadler, Zeace Nadler, 1987-10-19 Abstract: This book is a step-by-step guide to planning productive conferences and meetings. The authors begin with a discussion of conferences and meetings, including definitions of terms commonly used in the planning process. Next, each aspect of designing a conference is presented. Included are the following topics: site selection, meeting rooms, speakers, audiovisuals, food and beverage events, exhibits, marketing, public relations, transportation, entertainment, budgeting, registration, and program books. The authors conclude with chapters on evaluation, conducting the conference, and resources for those who plan conferences and meetings. Each chapter begins with a checklist of items which should be considered in that particular step of the process and then addresses each of the items on the checklist in more detail.

Landscape as Weapon John Beck,2020-12-15 Once the playgrounds and raw material for the avantgarde, abandoned places and things—decommissioned military sites, postindustrial spaces, contested and forgotten edgelands—are now just as likely to be seen as assets for entrepreneurs or connoisseurs of the authentically worn-out. This is the age of patina, where the material remains of times past—the fields and factories, test sites, back alleys, machines, and statues—are coveted, adored, mourned, and commemorated, as well as sometimes despised. Through an exploration of a wide range of recent film, photography, art, and writing about place, Landscape as Weapon argues that these abandoned sites are a critical arena for debate about the meaning of space and time under late capitalism.
