Women as Constitution-Makers Ruth Rubio-Marín,Helen Irving,2019-03-28 That a constitution should express the will of 'the people' is a long-standing principle, but the identity of 'the people' has historically been narrow. Women, in particular, were not included. A shift, however, has recently occurred. Women's participation in constitution-making is now recognised as a democratic right. Women's demands to have their voices heard in both the processes of constitution-making and the text of their country's constitution, are gaining recognition.

Campaigning for inclusion in their country's constitution-making, women have adopted innovative strategies to express their constitutional aspirations. This collection offers, for the first time, comprehensive case studies of women's campaigns for constitutional equality in nine different countries that have undergone constitutional transformations in the 'participatory era'. Against a richly-contextualised historical and political background, each charts the actions and strategies of women participants, both formal and informal, and records their successes, failures and continuing hopes for constitutional equality.

Economia socială a grupurilor vulnerabile Buzducea Doru,2016-06-14 Afacerile sociale și antreprenoriatul social ar putea reprezenta economia viitorului, alături de clasicele afaceri centrate pe profit. Volumul prezintă aceste alternative de dezvoltare economică în paralel cu perspectivele grupurilor vulnerabile, confruntate cu lipsuri cronice, deficit de resurse și posibilități limitate de depășire a situațiilor dificile de viață. Pe lângă tendințele globale, sunt trecute în revistă și cele mai noi practici locale privind intervențiile și programele de protecție socială a grupurilor vulnerabile. Elaborat de o echipă de cercetători și cadre didactice cu preocupări în domeniu, manualul se adresează studenților de la facultățile de profil, decidenților din administrația publică centrală și locală, precum și practicienilor din sfera asistenței sociale.
