Telling Moments Lynda Hall, 2003-11-15 Telling Moments collects contemporary short stories by a diverse group of twenty-four lesbian writers. Engaging themes of life and death, aging, motherhood, race, love, work, and travel, the writers offer brief glimpses into lesbian lives. The stories are by well-known contemporary writers—Gloria Anzaldúa, Mary Cappello, Emma Donoghue, Jewelle Gomez, Karla Jay, Anna Livia, Valerie Miner, Lesléa Newman, Minnie Bruce Pratt, Ruthann Robson, Sarah Schulman, and Jess Wells—and exciting newer voices, such as Donna Allegra and Marion Douglas. There are also stories from performance artists Carmelita Tropicana, Peggy Shaw, and Maya Chowdhry. Anna Livia's protagonist appreciates her mother's artful garden creation. Ruthann Robson tells of a survivor of the health care system. In Marion Douglas's story a teenager dances with an alluring classmate. Donna Allegra's strong construction worker copes with the death of her mother. And Karla Jay sets her character forth to swim with sharks. Most of the stories are accompanied by an author photo, biographical sketch, and—a most significant feature—a commentary from the author on her writing process and the autobiographical nature of her story, illustrating the truth behind the fiction.

You and I Raven Elizabeth, 2019-07-08 In a world where most stories are told to you in the third person point of view, You and I flips the script and puts you in the shoes of the author and her partner. These first person-written lesbian short stories will make you feel like you are truly a part of what you have read. They are told in such a way that anyone can see themselves in the scenarios. Depending on your imagination, you can have experiences as if you are with the author or as if you are the author. If you want to have an interactive experience, you and your partner can read them aloud to each other. One night, you could be having your first lesbian experience in a friend's house, and the next night, you could be meeting someone in a club to release a little frustration. You could be going for a weekend of camping with your partner, or you could be headed to meet up with a new friend for a much-needed vacation. No matter your experience or taste, there is a story written just for you. Each story has its own personality and feel to it. They are written with very little personal details like names and physical descriptions for the sole purpose of allowing anyone to imagine themselves in the stories. I read them slow because I don't want to miss a detail! They are amazing and so freaking intense! Your short stories actually turn me on! It is the most exotic experiences in each story, and I can't explain it, but I can't stop reading (BB, Illinois).
