Onyi Akachukwu Joseph, 2021-04-16 Human resources is the heart beat of any organization. It has become one of the most important departments of any organization. Most organizations especially in the developing economy like Nigeria face uphill task in managing their human resource to achieve their set up objectives. Human resources (people) are central to the survival of any organization and hence the backbone of any organization. Their motivation should be a priority to the management of the organization to achieve its set up objectives. The purpose of this text book is to provide the basic understanding of Human Resources Management to students and managers in our organizations. Students and managers are equipped with the fundamentals of managing people in organizations. Although the role of Human Resources Management in Nigeria has evolved quite a lot during the last few years, it is still not completely evolved. It faces constant challenges, but continues to grow nonetheless. Once fully evolved it will become one of the most fundamental departments in an organization; fully contributing towards its growth and prosperity. Human resources Management is now becoming a popular course of study in our higher institutions in Nigeria and other African countries. Even with this recent development, there is still scarcity of standard textbook written with the Nigerian background. The aim of this text book is to provide a standard text book in Human Resources Management with Nigerian background. Relating the above to the Nigerian experience, it is pertinent to understand the role of human resources management in organization as it is now different from the traditional role of personnel management. It is now necessary for students and managers to be introduced not only to the core functions involved in the management of people in the organization but whose responsibility it is to do so, for the organization to function effectively and efficiently. For the purpose of clarity this text book is sub-divided into four parts: Part one (I) (chapter 1 to 5): Introduction to Human Resources Management (HRM), it deals with the basic concepts and related theoretical concepts in Human Resources Management and the need to adopt a planned approach to Human Resources Management Part two (II) {chapter six (6) - ten (10)}. Staffing functions of Human Resources Management and the theme of the book, it deals with the staffing of the organization and putting in place the effective and efficient methods of staff appraisal and the Nigerian experience in human resources management, Part three (III) {chapter eleven (11) - fifteen (15)}, Empowering and motivating employees in organizations, it deals with the systematic approach and process of human resources training and development, motivation of employee at workplace for optimum productivity, Part four (IV), labour-Management relations in organizations, it deals issues relating to management and unions and lastly preparing for organization exit.
