

Lions Clubs International

Zander Campos Da Silva

Lions Clubs in the 21st Century Paul Martin Robert Kleinfelder,2008 Relates the history, growth and record of voluntary service accomplishments of Lions Clubs International from its establishment to the present day.

Lions Club - The Great Idea of Melvin Jones Zander Campos Da Silva,2014-01 Discover how in 1917 a group of businessmen in Chicago created the world's largest humanitarian service club organization! This book tells a detailed and unique history of Lions Clubs International, and highlights the work of dedicated members who provide community service and help people worldwide. Founded in Chicago in June 1917, the dream of a group of visionaries, led by Melvin Jones, from Fort Thomas, Arizona and Dr. William P. Woods, from Evansville, Indiana, is today the largest service club organization in the world. Almost 100 years old, the International Association of Lions Clubs can be found in 208 countries and geographic areas, with 1.35 million members participating in more than 45,000 Lions clubs. Originally published in 1995, this revised edition includes new data and extensive research about international conventions, the leadership of international presidents and directors, and photographs of the past 97 years. It also describes the role of Lions Clubs International in the founding of the United Nations in 1945. Global authorities such as kings, heads of state, congressmen, and professionals belonged or supported Lions clubs' projects in their countries. Sir Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, said that, Lionism is not the best idea of the present; it is the most brilliant idea of all times. Harry Truman, former president of the United States stated, In my lifetime I have known many great ideas: but none as great as this of Lionism. Former president of the United States Jimmy Carter became a member of the Plains Lions Club in the state of Georgia, was a district governor, and up to this date he works in partnership with Lions Clubs International Foundation. Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF), the official charitable arm of Lions Clubs International, supports Lions' compassionate work by providing grant funding for their local and global programs, such as helping victims of earthquakes, floods, and other natural disasters, and by supporting programs, such as SightFirst which is working to find the cure for reversible blindness. Lions are proud that LCIF was named the #1 non-governmental organization worldwide with which to partner, according to a 2007 Financial Times independent survey. Lions answered the call from Helen Keller who, at the 1925 International Convention, asked the Lions to become the Knights of the Blind. Lions' members and the public at large will be captivated by this vivid account of the organization's history and aspirations for what can still be accomplished in the future.

Service Clubs in American Society Jeffrey A. Charles,1993 Placing the clubs in the context of twentieth-century middle-class culture, Charles maintains that they represented the response of locally oriented, traditional middle-class men to societal changes. The groups emerged at a time when service was becoming both a middle-class and a business ideal. As voluntary associations, they represented a shift in organizing rationale, from fraternalism to service. The clubs and their ideology of service were welcome as a unifying force at a time when small cities and towns were beset by economic and population pressures.

Roar, Lions, Roar! Kenan Maready,2016-11-25 Lions Clubs International is an international secular, non-political service organization founded by Melvin Jones in 1917. As of April 2015, it had over 46,000 local clubs and more than 1.4 million members in over 200 countries around the world. Two of its major goals are to prevent blindness and provide eye care for indigent visually impaired persons worldwide. Each club is independent and carries out its own activities and projects to further the overall purpose of Lions Clubs International. This book is a spoof about a fictitious Lions Club, the Beaumont Lions Club in Wilmington, North Carolina. The hero, Ken Moore, joined that club and quickly became deeply involved, both mentally and physically, in its activities and projects. He is also a Certified Public Accountant who has numerous confrontations with the IRS, particularly Agent U. R. Kalt. He wins some tax cases and loses some others despite his expertise in tax law. At home, Ken thinks he is an expert handyman because he subscribes to and reads every article in the Family Handyman magazine. Some of his home repairs don't work out the way he planned.

Stories from the Heart: Lions Serving the World One Person at a Time Robert S. Littlefield,2017-12-20 This is a book about stories from the heart. The designation from the heart was carefully chosen because it identifies a place of origin. Using stories from the heartto relay how service to those in need transforms lives and creates a greater appreciation for the role that helping others can have on an individuals sense of purpose was the right choice for a book about Lions Clubs International and its impact on the world over the past one hundred years. Through the stories and comments included in this book, readers gain a better understanding of what service to others has meant to those who have chosen to heed the call to give of themselves in order to make life better for those in need.

We Serve in Dry Heat James D. Bailey, 2003 We Serve in Dry Heat is a history of the start of Lionism in Arizona and the origin of Lions Club International, researched and written by Past District Governor James D. Jim Bailey. After living in Arizona for several years and being involved in Lions Club activities there, I felt something was missing. There didn't seem to be a definitive history of how Lions Clubs were started in Arizona, along with the story of how Lions Clubs International was actually started by a native of Arizona. I had been involved in Lionism for 50 years. I was first a member of a Wisconsin Lions Club in 1952 and later served as a District Governor. Since I had been appointed the Historian for the Lions of Arizona, I decided to investigate the background of Arizona Lionism. I spent the next five years researching and writing the book, focusing on the Lions' motto, We Serve. The text of the book includes historical development of Arizona Lions Clubs starting in 1923; Lions who were elected to district and international offices; humanitarian projects; programs of Arizona Lions Clubs with the infusion of women and youth into Lionism, and more. I've included information about the origin of Lions Club International, and the influence of blind and deaf Helen Keller, who asked the Lions to become Knights of the Blind. This cause has been carried on since 1925, and has evolved into Lions raising millions of dollars to eradicate blindness on a worldwide scale as well as the simple task of providing eyeglasses for local school children. The title, We Serve in Dry Heat, is evocative of Lions Club members as they provide humanitarian service in the heat of Arizona summers, sometimes serving in temperatures reaching 122 F degrees as well as in the dry winter months. The founder of Lions Clubs International is a man by the name of Melvin E. Jones, who was born in 1879 at Fort Thomas, Arizona, where his father was stationed as a military officer. Jones eventually had a successful insurance business in Chicago. After joining a local business club, whose motto seemed to be you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours, he felt that something else was needed. He gathered together a number of local and regional clubs who agreed with him. It was from this gathering that Lions Clubs International was started in 1917. As the author of such a commanding amount of material, I have utilized many sources quite freely for relevant historical and related information and have given clear acknowledgement of these sources. says Bailey.
