Curly's Reservoir Dwayne W. Johnson,2016-07-08 Curly's Reservoir has been an idea of mine for forty years and worked on in the last three. The main character's a four-foot-tall, ten-year-old, one-hundred-and-sixty-five-pound underdog. Having already survived bullies at school and the occasional trouble at home, he is now faced with surviving on his own. The story is set back in the 1970s in the days when campgrounds were wild with very little rules. Curly experiences a cast of weird but caring characters who adopt Curly into their lives. Left to his own devices, Curly gets himself into situations that cause him to deal with many current issues affecting young people today. Curly's forced to learn about death, violence, substance abuse, as well as creating and maintaining friendships. Eventually, Curly grows in both self-confidence and self-worth. This sets Curly up for the school year to come (in book two, which I'm currently working on). Looking for a little camp adventure? I invite you to spend some time with Curly at Curly's Reservoir.
