Die oorlogskamer (eBoek) Chris Fabry, 2015-11-09 Dit lyk of Tony en Elizabeth Jordan alles het – 'n gerieflike huis en 'n pragtige dogter en loopbane wat blom, maar hulle is heeltyd aan die stryd. Elizabeth ontmoet Clara Williams met die hoop om nog 'n huis as eiendomsagent te verkoop. Elizabeth is egter geamuseerd en ongemaklik wanneer dié bejaarde weduwee vrae begin vra oor haar huwelik en geloof. Dan ontdek Elizabeth Clara se geheime gebedskamer – 'n plek waar sy op haar knieë baklei met die kragtigste wapen ... Soos die spanning by hulle huis toeneem, besef Elizabeth haar gesin is die moeite werd om voor te veg en dat sy nie hierdie stryd op haar eie kan wen nie. Om in blinde geloof tot God te bly bid vir haar gesin en hulle toekoms, is die enigste uitweg. DIE OORLOGSKAMER is gebaseer op die flik WAR ROOM deur Alex en Stephen Kendrick (die twee vervaardigers van die topverkoper-flieks FIREPROOF en COURAGEOUS). Hierdie roman bevat ook besprekingsvrae en kleurfoto's uit die flik.

Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague, 1982-01-01 . . . a liberating book about a liberating theological approach.--Christianity and Crisis Metaphorical Theology is a brilliant piece of writing which will make an important contribution both to new thinking on the nature of religious language and also to the dialogue between Christianity and Feminist Theology.--Rosemary Radford Ruether Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary The great virtue of Professor McFague's book is that it tackles [some] crucial problems in an extremely perceptive and creative way All in all it is a most timely book both for the theological and for the church at large.--Maurice Wiles Regius Professor of Divinity Christ Church, Oxford University

Why Believe? John Cottingham, 2009-07-09 Why Believe? sees John Cottingham, a philosopher of searing intellectual honesty, examine our society's struggle with the concept of belief. Cottingham's carefully reasoned yet impassioned account shows how the religious outlook connects with our deepest human longings, how it links up with our moral and aesthetic experience, how it is integrally involved in the quest for self understanding, and how it is not after all in conflict with a scientific understanding of the world.

The Children's Bible Anne de Vries, 1996

Heaven is for Real for Kids Todd Burpo, Sonja Burpo, 2011-11-08 Heaven is for real, and you are going to like it! Colton Burpo came back from his trip to heaven with a very important message: Jesus really, really loves children. In an effort to reach even more families with this eternally significant story, this runaway bestseller is now told from Colton-kid to kids! Children will receive the same comfort and assurance that so many adults have received from the trade book. Beautifully illustrated under Colton's direction, he shares his experiences in first person and comments on things that will be important to kids. A letter to parents is included to guide them as they talk to their children about heaven. Scripture along with a Q&A section with answers from the Bible are also included in the book.

Farewell to Innocence Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-05-01 While we acknowledge that all expressions of liberation theology are not identical, we must protest very strongly against the false divisions that some make: between black theology in South Africa and black theology in the United States, between black theology and African theology, and between black theology and Latin American liberation theology. But moving away from the illusioned universality of western theology to the contextuality of liberation theology is a risky business; one that cannot be done innocently. In the search for theological and human authenticity in its own situation, black theology does not stand alone. It is but one expression of this search going on within many different contexts. Until now, the Christian church had chosen to move through history with a bland kind of innocence, hiding the painful truths of oppression behind a facade of myths and real or imagined anxieties. This is no longer possible. The oppressed who believe in God, the Father of Jesus Christ, no longer want to believe in the myths created to subjugate them. It is no longer possible to innocently accept history as it happens, silently hoping that God would take the responsibility for human failure. The theology of liberation spells out this realization. For the Christian church it constitutes, in no uncertain terms, farewell to innocence.

The Hammer of God Bo Giertz, 2005 A classic Swedish novel about love, faith and spiritual renewal told in the form of a mystery novel.

The Christian Message in a Non-Christian World Hendrik Kraemer, 2009 Reading a classic work on Christian mission presents challenges on various fronts... Hendrik Kraemer's study of The Christian Message in a Non-Christian World is a classic work, worthy of the attention and esteem it garners in historical studies of the Christian mission... Kraemer's study sparkles with insight, and that is the most compelling reason for afresh study of this great work.

Spirituality and Pastoral Care Kenneth Leech, 2005-11-18 This book explores the relationship between personal spirituality and pastoral ministry, extolling the pastor's primary role as spiritual instructor to the parish. Leech shares with pastors and spiritual directors the important insights that counseling and psychotherapy lend to the process of spiritual direction. Leech makes concrete his advice in spiritual formation by holding up the lives of four parish priests who were a great influence on his own spiritual development, and of whom the Church Times writes, All were gospel radicals.

Chitambo Hagar Olsson, Tbd, 2020-03-20 From birth, Vega Maria Dreary is caught in a vice of conflicting parental expectations. Her father brings her up to admire history's heroic male adventurers, while her mother channels her towards housework and conformity. But when puberty comes, paternal half-promises evaporate and Vega has to fight her own way out of the domestic cage. In a time of revolution and civil war in early twentieth-century Finland, she finds it hard to identify her own calling, alighting first on the cause of feminism but feeling her way towards a wider humanitarian mission. The adult Vega looks back on her younger self with ironic humour, but is in despair about the end of a rocky relationship with her beloved Ta, now transformed by his wartime experiences. She recovers and opts to emulate her childhood hero Livingstone, beating new paths through her own psychological jungle. A kaleidoscope of changing roles for Vega whirls us through this compelling modernist novel, multi-layered but eminently accessible, with a wonderful feel for language, and vibrant evocations of an era and a place. Considered by many to be Hagar Olsson's best novel, Chitambo is now available in English for the first time.
