Who Wants to Be a Millionaire Hyperion,2000-01-05 Question: What is the name of the only game show to give away $500,000.00, the largest one-time cash prize in the history of American television? You are correct! Answer: The hottest new TV sensation, Who Wants to Be a Millionaire After an avalanche of hype, ABC's Who Wants to Be a Millionaire is a bona fide prime-time hit.--New York Post ABC has definitely won the jackpot this time with the most talked-about TVquiz show of the summer, Who Wants to Be a Millionaire, hosted by Regis Philbin. Nielsen ratings reported that 22.1 million viewers tuned into the broadcast, making it the most-watched show of the summer and the highest-rated prime-time series to hit the air in recent memory. Scheduled for a two week run during November 1999 sweeps, there are high expectations that it will be a weekly feature in January 2000. The basis for the show allows ten contestants each night to compete for escalating prizes that could ultimately total one million dollars! Now everyone can capture the excitement and entertainment of this overwhelmingly popular quiz show right in the palms of their hands. With this fun and challenging book readers can test their skill with multiple choice questions valued at different amounts of money--the toughest one is worth one million dollars! In addition, everything you ever wanted to know about the show is included, such as: how many people call the phone quiz, how the questions are protected, the truth about the lifelines, and stories about winners, losers, and life on the set. With the shows astounding success people want to know more. So whether you're looking to become the first million dollar winner or just want to find out more about the show that has swept the nation, Millionaire is your winning ticket.

Millionaire Moments Chris Tarrant,2001-10 The program format of Who Wants to be a Millionaire? has been sold to 120 countries—the most successful British light entertainment export of all time. In this book, presenter Chris Tarrant tells the story of the show's development from day one in September 1998, and describes his own thoughts about its enormous success. The book includes many of the multiple-choice questions from the show, as well as the stories of the big winners, big losers, and some hysterical screamers.

Who Wants to be a Millionaire? Sandy McKay,2004 Picture your average, ordinary Kiwi Family. Then picture this same family winning six million dollars! A gypsy reads Hannah s palm and says she will come in to a lot of money. But beware. Money has unpredictable powers. Fortune-telling, that s all just a bit of fun, isn t it? But then Hannah s family does win the lottery. Six million dollars. Did you hear that? SIX MILLION DOLLARS!!!!!! Life is going to be great from now on. The Guest family can have anything they want. Gavin can buy a drumkit and eat pizzas every night. Billy can have enough jellybeans to fill his entire bedroom. And Hannah? Hannah could go to Australia with her best friend, Ursula S if Ursula would only talk to her. The thing is, ever since she heard about the lottery money, Ursula has turned downright mean. And that s not all. After a newspaper story about the win, Hannah has been getting crank phone calls, her mother is receiving hundreds of begging letters, and a man from Gran s past is paying her attention that Hannah finds suspicious. Aren t all millionaires happy? Hannah s not so sure. But someone else definitely thinks so. That someone is trying to work out a way to make the Guests hand over their money. And Hannah has an idea of who it might be.

How to Win a Million William Laing,2004 At 21, William Laing scored six straight victories on Sale of the Century only to lose in a tie- breaker on the 7th episode. At 30- something he won half a million dollars on Who Wants to be a Millionaire? Last year he won a further $100,000 on the inaugural episode of Quizzmaster. As William says 'Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Sale of the Century are the most violent changes in my life so far. They happened, fifteen years apart, in the same room, at the Channel 9 TV studios in Melbourne. You, too, will have had your moments of horrible anxiety, total concentration, near panic, almost insurmountable disappointment and, I hope, moments of incredible elation. Most of this has happened to you, but probably not on national TV. a William Laing decided to share with us what it feels like to lose, and win, BIG and declares we will all be better contestants, in many games in life, when we put this book down. He shares everything he knows about quizzes, mental strategies, ways of training and using information to bring victory. In this age of tv quizzes, pub trivia nights, fund raising trivia nights and booming sales of board games it seems we all want to prove or improve our general knowledge. This is the book to help us do it. How to Win a Million blends William's personal experiences of preparation, winning, losing and celebrity with an analysis of questions from qualifying rounds of Who Wants to be a Millionaire and a complete guide to building a more efficient personal bank of general knowledge. There are even tips on using your knowledge of trivia to pick up dates and what to do with the million dollars you may well win.
