Dream Journal Walter T Spinner,2019-11-29 The Dream Journal That You Have Been Looking For. We all have dreams in the night and it's time to finally write them down! We hear of speakers, influencers, ministers, friends, and family members encouraging us to write our dreams, but we neglect their advice. Perhaps, it's because we don't see the importance in dreams. Maybe it's because we fail to see that dreams can help us for futures. What if our dreams can help us position us better for success. What if it can help us to avoid problems and obstacles? This is why this dream journal has been born. You will find a page where you will write down the date and the time. On the same page, you will see a section to write your dream and your dream interpretation. The next page, you will have a page to write your notes. Your night dreams may turn into dream encounters.

Dream Journal Beth Mitchum, 2012-11-22 Much has been written about the nature of dreams and dream interpretation. There are many dream dictionaries that seek to explain and interpret your dreams and these can often be helpful in getting to the meaning of your dreams. However, dreams are as personalized and unique as each dreamer. Yes, there are similarities in theme and the symbolic language of dreams, but the true key to understanding YOUR dreams is to be found in your psyche. Dream dictionaries can aid you in discovering the universal meanings of some symbols, but only your psyche knows what your dream means to you because dreams arise from our individual psyche as well as from the Collective Unconscious where universal archetypes/symbols reside. To unlock these meanings, you have to find the key to your own psyche. Since dreams speak the language of symbols, which is the domain of concepts and the right hemisphere of the brain, it often helps to utilize a left brain activity, such as writing, to connect the right brain activity of dreaming to the left brain activity of translating symbols into written language. Using a dream journal is like constructing a bridge for the conscious mind to use to pass between the two worlds of the dreaming mind and the waking mind. Used regularly, a dream journal can help us to understand what our unconscious is trying to tell us. It can act as a link between our Higher Selves and our egoic selves.
