Airy, June 9th, 10th, 11th, 1915 The sixth annual Convention of the North Carolina Baptist Young Peoples' Union met at Mount Airy with the first church, a beautiful, new and handsome structure of granite, June 9th, 1915. A larger number of delegates was present than had ever been before in the history of the Convention, reaching the number of 185. The dominant note of the entire Convention was devotion and we never saw a finer spirit in any Convention. 1981 Minutes of the Burnt Swamp Baptist Association, North Carolina, One-Hundred Fourth Annual Session Burnt Swamp Baptist Association, 2018-10 Excerpt from 1981 Minutes of the Burnt Swamp Baptist Association, North Carolina, One-Hundred Fourth Annual Session: Thursday Session, October 15, 1981, Mt. Airy Baptist Church; Friday Session, October 16, 1981, New Point Baptist Church This past week was a season of recognitions for men who have made special contributions to Lumbee history. Among these was tribute paid to a great spiritual leader, Rev. Percell Locklear, whose sudden death stole from us an honorable man and pillar of human inspiration. It's a good thing to honor those who excel in their fields of service and contribution. To honor their achievement and success, their leadership and inspiration to the rest of us is a noble act. Even the word of God declares its value in Romans Render therefore to all their dues: tribute, to whom tribute is to whom honour. Those who received our finest awards are now a part of an elite group. Unlike some men chosen to be awarded by others for services rendered, here was one chosen not only by men but also by the creator of men not just to contribute his energies to God's creation, but to commit his life toward its reconciliation, not just to serve but also sacrifice, not just succeed but also suffer. In our eagerness to credit the accomplishments of those who lead us or speak for us we too often overlook the compassion of those who guide -us and correct us. It is human to award those who honor us, while it is Godly to reward those who chasten us. Not all men of honor receive man's award, nor are all men who receive human award men of honor. Not so with God. God honors those who honor him and keep his Word. Brother Percell Locklear could not boast of human award but he received a divine charge as inspired through 11 Tim. 4 to Preach The Word, to reprove, rebuke, exhort; to watch, work and be offered, to fight a good fight, to finish the course, to keep the faith. Now follows the reward: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of II Tim. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. The Centennial History of Haymore Memorial Baptist Church, 1912-2012 (Classic Reprint) Donald Edmonds,2018-02-26 Excerpt from The Centennial History of Haymore Memorial Baptist Church, 1912-2012 The building, located on the corner of Price and Marshall Streets was completed in 1910. The Mission, named 'workers' Mission, became the ward of the First Baptist Church. Services were held each Sunday afternoon, being well attended by people of various faiths, as they could attend their own churches in the morning and the services of the Mission in the afternoon. On Sunday afternoon, October 13, 1912, a congregation assembled at Workers' Mission in south Mt. Airy for the purpose of organizing a Baptist Church. Race, Religion, and Resilience in the Neoliberal Age

Cedric C. Johnson,2016-04-29 This book presents a study of the rise of American neoliberalism in the aftermath of the modern Civil Rights movement, paying particular attention to the traumatic impact of the neoliberal age on countless African Americans. Author Cedric C. Johnson takes a close look at the manner in which American neoliberalism has been able to preserve, articulate, and exploit constructions of race-based difference. The neoliberal age has engendered an extraordinary growth in economic disparities and social inequalities, with traumatic repercussions for innumerable African Americans. Historically, black religious forms have functioned as contested spaces, capable of organizing alternative modes of cultural, economic, and political life. This project examines forms of black religiosity that function as modes of soul care in this context. Johnson posits an innovative, multi-systems approach that informs practices of care for populations traumatized or threatened by the neoliberal age.

Celebration of the 200Th Anniversary of Clayton Baptist Church, Clayton, Georgia Angie Cheek,Kathleen Arbitter,Joyce Rice,Paul Buchanan,Tina Hopkins,Shirley Rickman,Alton Story,Beverly Wilson,2019-08-19 The book is a celebration of the 200th anniversary of Clayton Baptist Church, Clayton, Georgia, which was founded on August 14, 1819. The church is older than its county. The Cherokee populated this area of Northeast Georgia, the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. The first pastor was a missionary to the tribe. The church epitomizes the faith of our fathers, living still. This publication is our humble effort to record the struggles and victories in the founding and growth of our church and to preserve the heart, soul, and mind of a determined and courageous people whose abiding faith in an eternal world to come enabled them to build a beloved church that would promote taking the good news to the uttermost parts of the world. Today, we can almost hear the encouraging whispers of our forefathers, who are part of our forever family.
