The Lost Dutchmen Mine and the Peg Leg Pete Mine Harold Cohn,2017-09-14 One who searches for what is not lost is a fool: ! The book THE LOST DUTCHMAN MINE and PEG LEG PETE MINE may lead one to the forgoing conclusion in regards to the Lost Dutchman Mine. However, after over five years of research and writing this writer can state that his conclusions are not fact nor fiction, just supposition. However, the book is designed to allow the reader to answer the forgoing questions about fact or fiction about the Lost Dutchman Mine. In regards to the Peg Leg Pete Mine (a supposition essay) the reader is allowed to answer the question about factor fiction for themselves. This writer's first journey into the past began when he wrote THE EL MONTE PARK HISTORY when he was working at El Monte Park (Lakeside, California). as a Park Ranger After, thirteen months of research and writing the completed work (THE EL MONTE PARK HISTORY) contained twelve pages. Years later in an abandoned pump house (8'x16') located in El Monte Park; Artist/Muralist Mona and Ranger Harold Cohn created the THE EL MONTE OAKS MUSEUM by Mona Mills, Artist/ Muralist painting murals on the interior walls of the abandoned pump based on the book the EL MONTE PARK HISTORY. I addition the second article this write saw published was titled: 'THE GOLDEN ONION which appeared un the November/December issue of GOLD PROSPECTOR MAGAZINE. Years later, Ranger Cohn took a one day course offered by Cuyamaca College, El Cajon, California titled: INDIANS of the Desert. The course was a driving/walking tour of ancient Native American site in the Anza-Borrego Stte Park (California). Lowell and Diana Lindsay of Sunbelt Books were the instructors. it was during this tour this writer saw his first pictograph (example of Native American rock art). Diana Lindsay was giving a supposition explanation of the pictograph to the group (30-35) people. The pictograph measured *'8x12. First she said the meaning of the pictograph could be spiritual. Next she stated the pictograph could be about fertility. Then one of the group hollered out: ITS GRAFFITI!. Then it was like a black curtain dropped. The people disappeared. There was just this writer and this writer and the pictograph. I shouted out: THE DAMNED THING IS A MAP!' I returned to the real world at this point. I was welcomed the group\s laughter which continued the rest of the day and all of the next day for the class titled: PIONEER'S of the DESERT: Years later I was taking a creative writing course titled: ARTICLES WRITING. As with all creative writing, if you turned your three assignment you automatically received your A for the class. I had a bad case if writer's block , I was it trouble! I stuck! Then said to myself write about that pictograph you saw in the desert. As with all creative assignments every one in the class receives a copy of the article the writer has written as the writer reads it aloud. After the writer is finished the writer's work open to comments by the class. After I finished reading my article, 'THE STONE SPOKE: a classmate, A LITTLE OLD LADY screamed: YOU CAN'T DO THAT I answered: MADAMN, I JUST DID! Years later and years of research and writing I wrote the e-book titled THE STONE SPOKE. The forgoing book contains a series of supposition essay of Native American rock and related subjects. It is available barnes&noble.com.

The style Jemel Williams emanates is from his educational background and his love for music. A Land of Sheltered Promise Jane Kirkpatrick,2005-04-19 Follow three women from three eras in the Pacific Northwest as they discover a place where miracles really happen—based on true stories. 1901: Plagued by loneliness on the Big Muddy Ranch, a sheepherder’s wife awaits the outcome of her husband’s trial for murder. He is sentenced to life in prison—and she to life without him. But a startling event could redeem their pasts and transform their future. 1984: Against a backdrop of attempted murder, federal indictments, and the first case of bio-terrorism in the U.S., one woman seeks to rescue her granddaughter from within the elaborate compound of a cult that has claimed the land. 1997: On the much-reviled, abandoned cult site, one woman’s skepticism turns to hope when she finds that what was meant to destroy can be used to rebuild—and in the process realizes a long-held dream. For three women seekers united across time, a remote and rugged stretch of land in the Pacific Northwest proves to be a place where miracles really happen—and the gifts of faith, hope, and charity are as tangible as rocks, rivers, and earth.

When All Goes Quiet Augustinus F. Lodewyks,2015 In 1954, Catharina and Joseph Lodewijks and their five sons took a train to Rotterdam and boarded a ship bound for Canada. Nestled safely in Catharina's womb, three months before his birth, was Augustinus, who would be the sixth son of seven. As the turbulent seas heaved the ship for ten harrowing days, Catharina prayed fervently until the family landed safely in Halifax. Between the voyage, its timing, and the faith of a mother, a seed of spiritual gifting was bestowed upon the child who was yet to be born, as evidenced by the exceptional experiences he would encounter a few years after he was delivered. This seed was nourished, and over time, it grew and bore fruit. From the tender age of five, the young lad quietly accepted his unusual connection with the spiritual world. Amidst the clamour and haste of the world around him, when faced with decisions great and small, and when encountering danger and loss, all would suddenly go quiet, and he would be blessed with a vision or revelation from the heavenly realms. So it continues to this very day. As written in Deuteronomy 18:18: I will put my words in his mouth and he shall tell them all I command him. This is Augustinus' calling, and this is his story.
