The Pusan International Film Festival, South Korean Cinema and Globalization
SooJeong Ahn 卞相宇, 2011-11-01 This book provides a political and cultural exploration of the Pusan International Film Festival in South Korea since its inception in 1996. By paying a particular attention to the organizers' use of an Asian regionalization strategy, SooJeong Ahn reveals how the festival staked out a unique and influential position within a rapidly changing global landscape. Very little primary empirical research has been conducted to date on non-Western film festivals, though PIFF and Tokyo and Hong Kong have swiftly grown more exciting and influential as testing grounds for global cinema innovations. The initiation, development and growth of PIFF should be understood as resulting from productive tensions in the festival's efforts to serve local, regional and national constituencies. The book also reflects the complexities of rapid transformation in the South Korean film industry as it has reached out to the global market since the late 1990s. SooJeong Ahn worked for the Pusan International Film Festival between 1998 and 2002 and has completed a Ph.D. on film festivals at the University of Nottingham. Her recent publications include Re-imagining the Past: Programming South Korean Retrospectives at PIFF, in Film International (Vol. 6, 2008), Placing South Korean Cinema into Pusan International Film Festival: Programming Strategy in the Global/Local Context, in What a Difference a Region Makes: Cultural Studies and Cultural Industries in North-East Asia (2009); Re-mapping Asian Cinema: The Tenth Anniversary of PIFF in 2005 in Cinemas, Identities and Beyond (2010).
