The UK's digital dividend will transform the way business operates, enhance the delivery of public services, stimulate communications infrastructure ready for next-generation distribution and preserve Britain's status as a global hub for media and entertainment. This approach seeks to maximise the digital opportunities for all citizens. The report contains: (1) an analysis of the levels of digital participation, skills and access needed for the digital future, with a plan for increasing participation, and more coherent public structures to deal with it; (2) an analysis of communications infrastructure capabilities; (3) plans for the future growth of creative industries, proposals for a legal and regulatory framework for intellectual property and proposals on skills and investment support and innovation; (4) a restatement of the need for specific market intervention in the UK content market, with implications and challenges for the BBC and C4 Corporation and other forms of independent and suitably funded news; (5) an analysis of the skills, research and training markets, and what supply side issues need addressing for a fully functioning digital economy; (6) a framework for digital security and digital safety at international and national levels and recognition that a world of high speed connectivity needs a digital framework not an analogue one; (7) a review of what all of this means for the Government and how digital governance in the information age demands new structures, new safeguards, and new data management, access and transparency rules.

Expert in a Year Sam Priestley, Ben Larcombe, 2015-08-18 Sam Priestley was never Mr Sporty. After failed attempts at rowing and running he had all but given up on the possibility of becoming a sportsman. That was until childhood friend, and table tennis coach, Ben Larcombe convinced him to act as the guinea pig in an experiment he had concocted - The Expert in a Year Challenge. Starting 1st January 2014 novice Sam was immersed in the world of competitive table tennis. He began training every day and over the course of the year notched up hundreds of hours of practice in an attempt to reach a seemingly impossible goal. There was blood, sweat, tears, injuries, frustrations and moments of elation as the pair travelled up and down the UK, and beyond, in their quest for training, mentors and competition. Sam found potential he never thought he had, got better at table tennis than most people thought possible, and discovered what it feels like when 1.5 million people watch you fail. Here is their story, including all the ridiculous training methods and unreachable goals, and the surprising lessons they learnt from playing table tennis every day for a year.

Nerd Do Well Simon Pegg, 2011-06-09 The unique life story of one of the most talented and inventive comedians, star of Shaun of the Dead, Hot Fuzz, Paul, Spaced, and Star Trek. Zombies in North London, death cults in the West Country, the engineering deck of the Enterprise -- actor, comedian, writer, and supergeek Simon Pegg has been ploughing some bizarre furrows. Having landed on the U.S. movie scene in the surprise cult hit Shaun of the Dead, his enduring appeal and rise to movie stardom has been mercurial, meteoric, megatronic, but mostly just plain great. From his childhood (and subsequently adult) obsession with science fiction, his enduring friendship with Nick Frost, and his forays into stand-up comedy, which began with his regular Monday-morning slot in front of his twelve-year-old classmates, Simon has always had a severe and dangerous case of the funnies. Whether recounting his experience working as a lifeguard at the city pool, going to Comic-Con for the first time and confessing to Carrie Fisher that he used to kiss her picture every night before he went to sleep, or meeting and working with heroes that include Peter Jackson, Kevin Smith, and Quentin Tarantino, Pegg offers a hilarious look at the journey to becoming an international superstar.

Cliff Jump Brandice Daniel, 2022-02-22 Cliff Jumping is my passion because without the jumps, my life would look totally different. I wouldn't have a successful company, live in New York, be featured on the Drew Barrymore show, have a deal with Nike, or living out my dream. My life would be full of regrets, what ifs, and a nagging feeling that there was better for me. I can easily recall having a college degree and working part-time in the local mall in Memphis, TN and working for a temp service filing papers! I knew there was more for me, but my life kind of putted along until I started to cliff jump. My first major jump was deciding to move from Memphis to New York without having the path totally figured out. Then, it was deciding to do a big event in Harlem knowing I did not have the experience people thought I needed to pull it off. From there, the cliff jumps started to snowball. It included putting down a deposit on an $85,000 venue but not knowing where the rest of the money would come from. That move resulted in my first sponsorship from Target. A cliff jump landed me in Portland, OR sitting in a board room full of Nike executives sharing my story and launching a collaboration on a sneaker for LeBron James. I could not have imagined owning a multi-million dollar company that has partnerships with major corporations. If I had played it safe and followed the status quo, my life would be quite different. My faith plays a major part in cliff jumping, so before you dive in, know that cliff jumping is taking a step of faith. To understand cliff jumping, you must know what it is not. Cliff jumping is NOT: - Moving without a plan - Acting on impulse - Putting your family and kids in harm's way - Taking an action without calculating the cost - Jumping without the work ethic to see it through I believe in planning and creating clear goals. Cliff jumping without either will leave you under the covers in tears. Trust me, I know. I've tried it several times and it's not fun. We will plan, but we will jump! Are you ready?
