A. G. Raab

Never Forget Names and Faces Dominic O'Brien, 2002 Learn quick and easy tips to remember names and faces based on Dominic's world beating methods Remember the names of people you've met only once or many years ago, never stumble over a name again and match the name to the face every time. This fun pocket sized gem will change the way you use your brain - and give you endless entertainment. Make your life easier with effortless recollection.

Names You Never Remember, with Faces You Never Forget Justin Humphreys, 2006 Names... compiles ten years' worth of interviews with as many character actors. These are the supporting players who have made generations of moviegoers blurt out I know that actor- Who is that? I've seen him a million times! These actors' identities have continually eluded most moviegoers. But their unforgettable faces and personalities are another story... Included are exhaustive interviews with: - R. G. Armstrong- Burly, prolific western star-- A perennial movie sheriff, Sam Peckinpah regular, and, unrecognizably, Dick Tracy's arch-nemesis, Pruneface! - Dick Bakalyan- The pugnacious Crown Prince of the Juvenile Delinquent film, familiar Disney movie player, and co-star of films as disparate as Ray Milland's Panic in Year Zero! and Roman Polanski's Chinatown. - Don Pedro Colley- Imposing, regal co-star of Beneath the Planet of the Apes (as the telepathic mutant inquisitor), THX-1138 (as a hologram), and Sugar Hill (as Baron Samedi, king of the zombies). - Royal Dano- In his last interview, Dano recalls his extensive career, working with Alfred Hitchcock, John Huston, Nicholas Ray, Jack Arnold, and dozens of other Hollywood notables. - Jonathan Haze- As part of director Roger Corman's stock company, Haze achieved cinematic immortality as the luckless Seymour in Corman's original The Little Shop of Horrors. Besides his multifarious work with Corman, Haze wrote AIP's manic Invasion of the Star Creatures, and worked behind the cameras with the likes of John Wayne. - Bo Hopkins- A cinematic stalwart of the '70s, whose credits include The Wild Bunch (his debut), The Getaway, Monte Walsh, American Graffiti, and The Day of the Locust. Another perennial movie sheriff! - L. Q. Jones- A western, war, and Peckinpah film staple, and director of the cult science fiction classic, A Boy and His Dog. His recent credits include Casino, The Edge, and The Mask of Zorro. (Also, quite possibly, the funniest character actor alive.) - Buck Kartalian- Diminutive former wrestler and body-builder, best remembered as Julius, the ape jailer of Planet of the Apes. Kartalian's film work ranges from major Hollywood fare (Mr. Roberts, Cool Hand Luke) to some of the wackiest exploitation films ever (The Acid Eaters, Please Don't Eat My Mother!, and Devil's Angels.) - Paul Koslo- Laconic action star of the '70s into the '90s: The Omega Man, Mr. Majestyk, The Losers, Cleopatra Jones, Joe Kidd, ad infinitum. - Marc Lawrence- One of the screen's greatest gangsters, with a career spanning well over 150 feature films and eight decades! Illustrated with over 100 photographs, Names... chronicles the lives of the unsung character men who often outshone the stars that surrounded them. Includes never-before-published interview material. NAMES YOU NEVER REMEMBER - WITH FACES YOU NEVER FORGET, will give you hours of pleasure, ten unique perspectives on the film industry, and will send you searching for dozens of movies - ones that you've never seen before, and others you know well, but will appreciate on a whole new level. I recommend it highly. - Henry's Western Round-up

Putting Names with Faces Christine Lienemann-Perrin, Atola Longkumer, Afrie

Songco Joye, 2012 Women have participated in Christian mission work since the beginning of Christianity. Few of their names are known to us; others are identified as spouses or coworkers of men in mission; and many remain completely anonymous. Putting Names with Faces addresses this disparity and attempts to do justice to at least some of the women who have contributed tremendously to the missionary endeavor in past and present times on all continents. It is an attempt to put names to these otherwise unknown faces and to honor their significant, but untold, contributions throughout the history of mission. Thoughtful, eye-opening, expansive, and humbling, Putting Names with Faces is a book you will not be able to forget.

I have also taught a World War II veteran and he was the star of the class. Some people will learn the techniques and become memory champions. Others will just get better at remembering names Q: How long does it take to get good at remembering names?A: It depends but what takes the longest is turning names into pictures and getting pictures in your head for common names. It could take a year to turn 500 names into a picture. Q: How many names could the average person remember?A: How about this: Set a goal for yourself to meet and remember 100 new names this year. Sounds like a lot but it is only 2 a week but just imagine how knowing 100 new people would change your relationships. If I can do 128 names in 15 minutes you can do 100 in 12 months. Oh, for the record you can do 128 in 15 minutes too but you don't believe me now. Get the book and then you will believe me.

How to Remember Names and Faces Howard Bradley Smith, 2022-09-15 Howard Bradley Smith The Father of the Modern Mnemonic Memory Approach Howard Bradley Smith was many things, but foremost he was an educator. His eagerness for sharing knowledge was second only to his passion for learning. Of the many things he discovered throughout his life, and certainly his most insightful, was that people are more important than machines. As a business consultant he often told his clients, the repair of any machine is simple compared to the repair of damage done by bad human relationeering. As Mr. Smith studied people closely, he noted how their hearts were warmed by those who respected them enough to remember their names. He became sensitive about his own shortcomings in this area and began to make a serious study of the psychology of remembering names. Along the way he discovered the memory work of noted psychologist, Dr. Carl Emil Seashore, who's Natural Laws of Remembering formed the basis of Howard Bradley Smith's timeless approach to remember names and faces. The three Natural Laws were studied, incorporated and expanded upon by Mr. Smith in his five simple, sensible rules found here in The Easy Way to Remember Names. This updated version of his classic book now includes two sections. Section One of the book is Mr. Smith's classic instruction with only minor editorial revisions. Section Two offers a brief overview of Dr. Seashore's Natural Laws of Remembering. Here you'll discover the scientific foundation upon which Howard Bradley Smith built his Five Rules. This timeless method for remembering names works as brilliantly today as it did when it was first developed over 80 years ago. The approach, found within the pages of The Easy Way to Remember Names, is why Howard Bradley Smith is regarded as the grandfather of the modern mnemonic memory approach.
