Low Cost Strategies for Short Term Parking on Interstate Highways of the MVFC ,2009 This report documents a study of truck parking issues along the major freight corridors in the 10-state MVFC region. An online GIS instrument was developed to administer surveys and allow for continuous public participation. The study surveyed highway patrol officers, public freight planners and truckers to identify parking facilities incommensurate with truck parking needs. It proposes a method to cluster marked spots for identifying areas with the most need for additional truck parking capacity. In-person carrier interviews were also conducted to further clarify truck parking problem causes and solutions. A set of low cost strategies are finally proposed to policy makers. This study also inventories both public and private parking facilities along the region's freight corridors and provides a review of previous studies--Technical report documentation page.

Flashpoint Stentorville 2003 Helmut and J. E. H. Roth,2019-08-13 Bart skips outta Fort Collins on an eastbound freight train and ends up in rural, rustbelt, Stentorville, Pennsylvania—a whacky place complete with forgetful old lady—Dotty, black-booted, ragtag bullies stomping around town, one weird, red-headed, whiz kid—Ollie, and a hard-to-read young lady—Abby with a gigantic fireman dad. Set in a previous era, readers will find eerie parallels to events happening today. Poignant while delving into difficult subjects of White Nationalism and Alzheimer's; Middle Grades to High School and adults who may need to understand societal influences on their children; Reading and literacy teachers: Theme, Point of View, Characters, Cause and Effect, History compare & contrast; Relatable, authentic, multicultural teen characters. Parallel stories which merge into one edgy climax. A worthy introduction for teens to a discussion of White Nationalism as part of the current national scene. Highly recommended.
