Travel Tips Martar Media,2020-01-24 How to Get a Good Travel Deal on Hotel, Car, and AirfareWhen looking for the best travel deal possible, don't risk it. Never cross your fingers and hope for the best - research your options and get the vacation you deserve when you're spending your hard-earned money.The more time you book in advance, the more time you have to keep a close eye on hotel prices and airfare and make exchanges wherever applicable. If you've been searching for a long time now, and you see something that looks like a good deal - it probably is!Try to look online for various travel deals. Booking online is probably one of the most cost-cutting and valuable methods of making reservations somewhere. Simply checking websites that claim the lowest prices isn't enough anymore. Compare prices everywhere in order to get a good travel deal.If you're a generally a spur-of-the-moment type person, always be sure to check for last minute deals on flights that still have empty seats a few hours before boarding. This could cut costs by a lot since airlines want your business. When searching for a good travel deal, make sure to look and see if the price of the ticket includes taxes and all applicable fees. If not, you may be tacking an additional hundred dollars onto your price. When searching for hotels, similar to airfare, try not to settle for the first rate you're offered. Ask about military, corporate, senior, or any other special rates you might qualify for. Selecting a hotel just outside the major city you're visiting tends to be cheaper as well - which allows for a better travel deal. Ask for an upgrade to a suite because many companies will do it for free if the room is empty. Getting a great travel deal on a rental car is easy if you ask for upgrades. Generally, it's less expensive to rent using the online service rather than walking in and renting a full week is often cheaper than a daily rate. Don't forget to add taxes to whatever rate you're being offered. Check with your auto-insurance agent to make sure that you're covered in case an accident occurs while in a rental car. Before leaving the lot, be sure to make note of any dents, scratches, stains, or other damages in order to avoid taking the bill for someone else's carelessness. Another good travel deal tip is to try walking from your hotel or hostel to a local restaurant. This will eliminate cab costs and will make you feel better gaining some fresh air and being able to take in all of the local scenery. Can a Travel Package Help Me Save Money? When looking to get away from the commotion of everyday life for a long period of time, or even just a weekend, be sure to find a value-packed travel package. Travel packages are almost always available for crowd attracting destinations such as Orlando, Las Vegas, Hawaii, and even cruise lines. As far as pricing goes, the cost of the travel package is constructed on various things. Something as small as time of the year can be a deciding factor in the price range of your travel package. If you use a travel agent, it may depend on the capability of the agent to get discounts for you. During slow season, hotels could offer discounts up to 50% depending on the days you're staying. Agents also promise a certain number of seats to be filled on specific flights, making them achieve a smaller cost per passenger. Choose wisely because there are countless amounts and types of vacation travel packages. Some travel packages take care of every little detail - including meals and even going as far as tips. Travel packages can be simple or complex, depending on your preference. Most travel packages include the 3 quintessential aspects of a getaway: airfare to and from your destination, hotels during your stay, and transportation while there. Various travel packages offer shuttle bus transportation to and from the hotel and/or various amusement destinations, while others only offer a discount on a rental.

The Wall Street Journal Guide to the Business of Life Nancy Keates, 2005-06-07 Almost Everything You Need to Know About Leading the Good Life Too many decisions. Too many choices. What today's smart consumer must have is a money-and-time-saving guide for conducting the "business of life"—both the big challenges, such as getting top-notch health care for the family and the best education for the kids, and the pleasurable ones, like plotting the family summer vacation. Nancy Keates and her expert colleagues at The Wall Street Journal provide all-new material that gives the lowdown on: The Savvy Traveler: How to cut to the chase and not only avoid the indignity of cramped plane seats and overpriced tickets, but also get the best and safest seats at the same time. The Fine Art of Dining and Drinking: Landing the hottest table in town—at a discount; picking wine without becoming a wine snob; and learning about "barley matters"—the newest, hottest beers. How to Speak Geek: Demystifying tech trends, with smart advice on not only what high-tech gadgets to buy but how to shop for them. Everything You Need to Know About Buying, Selling and Financing a Car: How to get the best and safest vehicle at the best price. Real Estate: Will the bubble burst? Here's how to be an informed buyer and seller along with the basics of remodeling and designing your home. How to Be an Informed Patient: Choosing a hospital, playing private investigator with your M.D., and learning about the tests you really ought to have (even if you have to pay for them yourself). Getting Real Bang for Your Education Bucks: What you need to know from preschool through college and graduate school. The Great Balancing Act: Managing work and family, and finding out how to avoid the overstretched child and parent syndromes. Financing Your Life: It was easy in the 1990s, but the world has changed dramatically. Here's how to deal with the new world of saving, investing and borrowing money. Shopping: The New Sex? Throw away your Kama Sutra. The number one thrill in shopping is getting a good deal—here's how to play the game and get the best stuff at the best price. The Wall Street Journal Guide to the Business of Life is both an instruction manual for living life to the fullest and a fun read about what really matters in the day-to-day. It has all the basic insight and information you need to navigate through life along with hilarious side trips such as "The Three-Decorator Experience" and "Cruises: Sailing New Waters."

Laptop Bride Cathy Lynn, 2004 With the explosion of the World Wide Web, planning a wedding has never been more fun or filled with so many choices! The Internet allows you to personalize your wedding, find great ideas, prices, items you want and sometimes items you never knew existed. Best of all, you can shop anytime of day 24/7, in any type of weather, any kind of dress, and you don't have to worry about parking or salespeople. Laptop Bride's focus is to help you find what you are looking for quickly while saving aggravation and money. For example, who would have thought that you could rent a chocolate fountain over the internet? Well, you can! Perhaps the groom wants to forego the tux and wear an Elvis jumpsuit instead. Want to surprise your groom? Have a U.S. Flag flown over the capitol on your wedding day. Simply go to HomeofHeroes.com and order your flag (in advance of course) to fly at the exact time of your wedding! Need a recipe and directions to make the groom an armadillo cake? We have the links. We have links for designer gowns, veils, favors and more. Let's face it; shopping on-line is the ultimate in convenience, opportunity and fun.
