Trivia A-Z for Seniors Steve Vernon,2021-02-12 Trivia A-Z for Seniors is the culmination of about 6 years of a weekly team trivia activity I designed and led for the residents at a senior living community where I worked for nearly 10 years. Beginning almost as a fluke, it quickly developed into one of the most popular and consistently successful activities in the community. Unlike so many collections of trivia and trivia quizzes, focus was on gearing the questions to the particular age group.Similar to the original weekly team trivia model, the book has been formatted, for the most part, in 10-question rounds as that seems to work well with regard to both time and attention span. Also, this format will allow activity leaders in any setting to easily pull out what they would like to use for a particular event without having to spend valuable time searching the internet for trivia questions and organizing each event themselves.A handy printable Answer & Score Sheet can be found just before the index at the end of this book.My hope is that you will find the content of these pages fun and useful for weeks and months to come, whether you are involved with a local senior living community or RV park, community center, or wherever seniors may tend to gather. The book can also make an excellent gift for friends or family members who love trivia or are looking for ways to keep their mind active.

Brainiac Ken Jennings,2007-10-30 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • A witty, charming, and engaging dive into trivia’s colorful history, from America’s highest-earning game show contestant of all time “Insightful, informative, and written with a strong dose of humor and humility. . . . I loved this book.”—Will Shortz, crossword editor, The New York Times Ken Jennings is trivia’s undisputed king—and as he traces his rise from anonymous computer programmer to nerd folk icon, he explores his newly conquered kingdom: the world of trivia itself. Trivia, he has found, is centuries older than his childhood obsession with it. Whisking us from the coffeehouses of seventeenth-century London to the Internet age, Jennings chronicles the ups and downs of the trivia fad: the quiz book explosion of the Jazz Age; the rise, fall, and rise again of TV quiz shows; the nostalgic campus trivia of the 1960s; and the 1980s, when Trivial Pursuit® again made it fashionable to be a know-it-all. Jennings also investigates the shadowy demimonde of today’s trivia subculture, guiding us on a tour of trivia across America. He goes head-to-head with the blowhards and diehards of the college quiz-bowl circuit, the slightly soused faithful of the Boston pub trivia scene, and the raucous participants in the annual Q&A marathon in Stevens Point, Wisconsin, “The World’s Largest Trivia Contest.” And, of course, he takes us behind the scenes of his improbable 75-game run on Jeopardy! But above all, Brainiac is a love letter to the useless fact. (Who knew that there’s a crater on Venus named after Laura Ingalls Wilder? Ken Jennings, that’s who.) Engaging and erudite, Brainiac is an irresistible celebration of nostalgia, curiosity, and geeky obsession—in a word, trivia.

Ten Decades in the Life of My Dad Marion Elizabeth Fraser, 2015-04-14 The 20th century heralded the greatest technological changes of any century. My Dad lived through virtually all of it - from 1898 to 1997. He served in two world wars and raised two families. Even though my Dad was a quiet man, he shared with me his stories and he shared with me his soul. His advice was always sage and he took a deep interest in the lives of his children, his grandchildren and his great grandchildren. Aside from his military service, he was a self employed man - home builder, farmer, logger. This book views the 20th century through his eyes. For me it was a labour of love and an opportunity to revisit the many lessons I learned through knowing him, his life, his hopes, his dreams and his disappointments. His only regret in life was not completing his science degree at Queen's University. He was in the class of '23, enrolling after returning from his overseas service in World War I in which all three of his brothers were wounded. He rarely talked about war, except to say it was a waste. Dad had a great sense of humour. He loved to read and enjoyed good movies and in his later years we watched many movies together. But mostly he worked hard. He always did whatever was necessary, but only after thinking the task through and figuring out the best way to accomplish his goals.
