Stephen James, David Thomas, 2016-01-05 What guy doesn't need some pointers on how to be the man he wants to be? And we know that being a man is so much more than building a successful career and mastering the mechanics of daily life (like oil changes), those functional things are really important too. By addressing the basic, primal, and archetypal moments that all men experience, this book helps men become more invested in their passions, their families, their lives, and God.

The Perfect Hit Britney Mills, 2021-07-19 Hazel and Colt's love story

The Perfect Hit Joshua Wingard, 2019-09-10 Are you new to golf? Have you been playing for a while but never got instructions from a Pro? Have you gotten instruction but still can't hit as you envisioned? If you answered yes to any one of these questions, then The Perfect Hit is a MUST read. In this short how-to book, you will learn the fundamentals that no one is talking about when it comes to the perfect hit. For many of us getting out on the green is a time to relax, blow off steam, connect with friends, family, colleagues, or a partner. However, all of us want to be able to feel confident and be able to perform. The Perfect Hit will not only give you a firm understanding, but it will take out the ambiguity of figuring out how to hit perfectly every time. You do not need the latest and greatest clubs, and you do not need hundreds of dollars worth of instructions.

162-0: Imagine a Red Sox Perfect Season Mark Cofman, 2010-03-01 In a series that imagines the impossible, each book plays out a flawless season for a particular team, identifying the most memorable real-life victory on every single day of the baseball calendar and including archival photos, original quotes and thorough research.

The Re-creation of Brian Kent Harold Bell Wright, 1919 Redemption of a bank robber.

Blitz Your Life Tim Shaw, Richard Sowienski, 2017-01-03 If you've ever dreamed of something more in life, this book is for you. Winner in two categories at the 2018 Benjamin Franklin Awards, Blitz Your Life is a collection of reflections from a former NFL linebacker on a life lived fearlessly and challenges from a man with a sense of urgency for impact. These powerful stories range from Tim's time on the football field to the radically different life and goals that resulted from his diagnosis with ALS in 2014. Tim also shares stories of ordinary people who have faced everyday challenges and accomplished extraordinary things. Whether they sweep floors or rebuild neighborhoods or make music, all are living lives that make a difference. At times funny and others serious, Tim encourages readers to write their own goals and stories while pursuing their dreams. Through his whiteboard challenges, he provides practical help that takes readers on a road to success. From his NFL days to his support of ALS awareness, this fighter's message is a courageous call to find and enjoy a life with purpose.

Action Learning Wojciech W. Gasparski,2017-11-30 Praxiology is the study of working and doing from the point of view of effectiveness. It has three components: analysis of concepts involving purposive actions; critique of modes of action from the viewpoint of efficiency; and normative advisory aspects in recommendations for increasing human efficacy. This sixth volume of the Praxiology series focuses on action learning. Learning from distinguishable action is surprisingly different than learning from a subject expert in human or book form. For those who have worked with and in action learning, the latest form is always distinguishably different from a former experience. Action learning programs are not, in general, intended to tackle puzzles, namely, questions to which an answer may be said to exist even if that answer is difficult to find; action learning is intended to help to develop the ability to tackle problems or opportunities, of which different persons, all experienced, intelligent, and motivated, might well advocate different courses of action, all reasonable. The essentials of action learning, according to this volume, are: there can be no learning unless the participant receives feedback about his/her performance; participants learn only of their own volition and never at the will of others; the volition to learn is most readily engendered by the lure of success or by the fear of calamity. Building upon these essentials, the authors view action learning as a process of inquiry beginning with the experience of not knowing what to do next, and finding that an answer is not available from current expertise. All chapters in this volume are sound contributions to the continuing debate on the processes of learning from distinguishable action. Action Learning is intriguing reading for sociologists, philosophers, managers, and researchers of all disciplines.
