The Beauty of Autumn Lance J. Kendrick,2015-04-08 The Beauty of Autumn is a wonderful and vivacious story that dares to explore these subjects: can an older woman compete and keep the heart and love of a younger man? Can a younger man maintain his love and commitment to an older woman? Michael Collins, the sure self, ambitious, young bachelor, has not met a woman he could not mesmerized by his charm and dapper Dan good looks. Women can't help but to greet, meet, and keep when they get to know him. Just when he thought he had this player thing down to a science, he meets the sure, independent, intelligent, and attractive Zoe Davis. Zoe Davis, as far as she was concerned, had given up on love. She's been in love a few times and has come to the conclusion being in love was overrated. Their chemistry and personality clashes and crashes like two trains. Can the two work through their issues and differences, such as age, adult children, and giving up being a player? Can the two find what they both need and desire which is true love? The story of The Beauty of Autumn is very provocative, it will make you laugh, cry, and think.

Dead Man's Cell Phone Sarah Ruhl,2010-02 An incessantly ringing cell phone in a quiet caf. A stranger at the next table who has had enough. And a dead man - with a lot of loose ends. So begins Dead Man's Cell Phone, a wildly imaginative new comedy by playwright Sarah Ruhl, recipient of a MacArthur ''Genius'' Grant and Pulitzer Prize finalist for her play The Clean House. A work about how we memorialize the dead - and how that remembering changes us - it is the odyssey of a woman forced to confront her own assumptions about morality, redemption, and the need to connect in a technologically obsessed world. Sarah Ruhl's plays have been produced at theaters around the country, including Lincoln Center Theater, the Goodman Theatre, Arena Stage, South Coast Repertory, Yale Repertory Theatre, Berkeley Repertory Theatre, among others, and internationally. She is the recipient of the Susan Smith Blackburn Prize (for The Clean House, 2004), the Helen Merrill Emerging Playwrights Award, and the Whiting Writers' Award. The Clean House was a Pulitzer Prize finalist in 2005. She is a member of 13P and New Dramatists.

Collect10n Daniel Flores,2021-06-15 Keep. It. Simple. (I say...) Strangers awaken to find themselves bound and tethered. Whereabouts unknown. A mysterious Host eyes them like prizes, and taunts them like animals in a cage. Nine travelers as different in age and background as they are in experience and temperament. They'll be thrown together in a twisted and macabre party of sorts, a coerced evening of storytelling, designed to entertain their peculiar and poetic Host, some unseen entity, and each other. In the tradition of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, Bradbury's Illustrated Man, and Palahniuk's Haunted, what you are about to read is a collection of stories tied together somehow, maybe, and intended, hopefully, to entertain.

But I can't run from this, even if it seems impossible. There's no way I'm related to him—Hades. God of the Underworld.

Make Time Jake Knapp,John Zeratsky,2018-09-25 From the New York Times bestselling authors of Sprint comes “a unique and engaging read about a proven habit framework [that] readers can apply to each day” (Insider, Best Books to Form New Habits). “If you want to achieve more (without going nuts), read this book.”—Charles Duhigg, author of The Power of Habit Nobody ever looked at an empty calendar and said, The best way to spend this time is by cramming it full of meetings! or got to work in the morning and thought, Today I'll spend hours on Facebook! Yet that's exactly what we do. Why? In a world where information refreshes endlessly and the workday feels like a race to react to other people's priorities faster, frazzled and distracted has become our default position. But what if the exhaustion of constant busyness wasn't mandatory? What if you could step off the hamster wheel and start taking control of your time and attention? That's what this book is about. As creators of Google Ventures' renowned design sprint, Jake and John have helped hundreds of teams solve important problems by changing how they work. Building on the success of these sprints and their experience designing ubiquitous tech products from Gmail to YouTube, they spent years experimenting with their own habits and routines, looking for ways to help people optimize their energy, focus, and time. Now they've packaged the most effective tactics into a four-step daily framework that anyone can use to systematically design their days. Make Time is not a one-size-fits-all formula. Instead, it offers a customizable menu of bite-size tips and strategies that can be tailored to individual habits and lifestyles. Make Time isn't about productivity, or checking off more to-dos. Nor does it propose unrealistic solutions like throwing out your smartphone or swearing off social media. Making time isn't about radically overhauling your lifestyle; it's about making small shifts in your environment to liberate yourself from constant busyness and distraction. A must-read for anyone who has ever thought, If only there were more hours in the day..., Make Time will help you stop passively reacting to the demands of the modern world and start intentionally making time for the things that matter.
