100 Christmas Wishes New York Public Library, 2018-10-16 A treasure trove of vintage Christmas cards, 100 Christmas Wishes is the perfect holiday treat from the New York Public Library. Every year as the days grow shorter, amidst the holly, cookies, and carols there is another timeless holiday tradition—sending and receiving Christmas cards to and from those you love. 100 Christmas Wishes is a collection of vintage holiday cards, all from the archives of the New York Public Library. The Library houses one of the greatest collections of early Christmas postcards from around the world with thousands of cards depicting every imaginable holiday scene. Archivists selected one hundred of the best cards from the extensive collection to share in 100 Christmas Wishes. From the elegant, gilded Santa Clauses and statuesque angels, to yuletide still lifes, tumbling tots and puppies with bows round their necks, each card is a beautiful celebration of the holiday season. The book also includes six perforated postcards with reproductions of the designs so you too can share a vintage Christmas wish with friends and family on your list. As Rosanne Cash, a patron and friend of the Library as well as a devoted fan of Christmas cards, says in her introduction “This collection of early Christmas postcards, housed for a century in the New York Public Library archives, distills those abiding wishes for the holidays from revelers from long ago and faraway, in a wish for peace, joy, magic, bounty, family, and for light to be shone ‘round the world at Christmas, past and future.’”

Israeli and Palestinian Postcards Tim Jon Semmerling, 2013-08-26 Searing images of suicide bombings and retaliatory strikes now define the Israeli-Palestinian conflict for many Westerners, but television and print media are not the only visual realms in which the conflict is playing out. Even tourist postcards and greeting cards have been pressed into service as vehicles through which Israelis and Palestinians present competing visions of national selfhood and conflicting claims to their common homeland. In this book, Tim Jon Semmerling explores how Israelis and Palestinians have recently used postcards and greeting cards to present images of the national self, to build national awareness and reinforce nationalist ideologies, and to gain international acceptance. He discusses and displays the works of numerous postcard/greeting card manufacturers, artists, and photographers and identifies the symbolic choices in their postcards, how the choices are arranged into messages, what the messages convey and to whom, and who benefits and loses in these presentations of national self. Semmerling convincingly demonstrates that, far from being ephemeral, Israeli and Palestinian postcards constitute an important arena of struggle over visual signs and the power to produce reality.

Davis Message Cards John Garrett, Michael Trickett, 2017-04-17 Davis Message Cards Edited by Mike Trickett and John Garrett The Book This volume catalogues Davis Message Cards - Postcards first produced in the USA and then in England in the early twentieth century. These cards are not well known nowadays. We hope this small work may raise their profile a little. There is first a preamble giving what little we know about Davis Message Cards (DMCs). Our catalogue provides a listing of known (UK) cards where there was no known listing before. Apparently, the AM Davis company did not keep the records of the cards they made. This catalogue, therefore, provides a useful tool in making sense of what was produced. We begin with the postcards listed in sets of 10 as this seemed a natural arrangement given the similarity of design within the set. Near the end is an index which once the listing had been established has proved invaluable in providing a quick way of locating a card in the catalogue. One can see if the card is already in the collection or not. A check list (to the left) is provided to tick off new cards. Varieties exist. They are described and where they are known they are noted with an A, B, C etc. to the right of each set. Each set is introduced by a brief description and some example images of the cards. Varieties are described at the end of each set together with other potentially useful information. We end with a general history putting DMCs in the context of the development of greetings cards at the beginning of the twentieth century. Santa Claus Worldwide Tom A. Jerman, 2020-05-11 This is a comprehensive history of the world's midwinter gift-givers, showcasing the extreme diversity in their depictions as well as the many traits and functions these characters share. It tracks the evolution of these figures from the tribal priests who presided over winter solstice celebrations thousands of years before the birth of Christ, to Christian notables like St. Martin and St. Nicholas, to a variety of secular figures who emerged throughout Europe following the Protestant Reformation. Finally, it explains how the popularity of a poem about a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer helped consolidate the diverse European gift-givers into an enduring tradition in which American children awake early on Christmas morning to see what Santa brought. Although the names, appearance, attire and gift-giving practices of the world's winter solstice gift-givers differ greatly, they are all recognizable as Santa, the personification of the Christmas and Midwinter festivals. Despite efforts to eliminate him by groups as diverse as the Puritans of seventeenth century New England, the Communist Party of the twentieth century Soviet Union and the government of Nazi Germany, Santa has survived and prospered, becoming one of the best known and most beloved figures in the world.
