The International Poultry Book (Classic Reprint) George Woodward,2016-06-23 Excerpt from The International Poultry Book The majority of people keeping poultry in these times are after a profitable investment, at least it generally shows that way, but often it is a pure speculation. If a man has only a small capital and likes birds, details, With a disaster or two chipping in now and then as a warning to keep his faculties primed, and he will follow the general principles of this book, then progress will be assured. I have no time for a smooth railroad track in poultry culture. You must be prepared for the side tracking of Nature on all your schemes, as no genuine progress is made without pin-pricks of disappointments. Let your enthusiasm shatter the bulwarks of disease and disaster, your determination and will-power will jump you onwards to victory.
